Journal of the House

NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI
SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 2004

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by Speaker Hanaway.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers, Pastor, St. Peter Church, Jefferson City, Missouri.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit of God, conscious of our limitations and aware that we gather in Your sight. We gather for the sake of all the people we have been chosen to represent.

Come to us, remain with us, and enlighten our hearts. Give us light and strength to know Your will, to make it our own, and to live it in our lives.

Guide us by Your wisdom, support us by Your power, for You are God, sharing the glory of Father and Son.

You desire justice for all: Enable us to uphold the rights of the people; do not allow us to be misled by ignorance, or corrupted by fear or favor.

Unite us to Yourself in the bond of grace and keep us faithful to all that is true.

As we gather in Your name, may we temper justice with equity and mercy, so that all our decisions may be pleasing to You, and earn the reward promised to good and faithful servants.

You live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol, Troop A Color Guard, presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

OATH OF OFFICE

Representative-elect Terry Swinger advanced to the bar and subscribed to the oath of office, which was administered by Speaker of the House, Catherine L. Hanaway at 12:06 p.m.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER CATHERINE L. HANAWAY

Esteemed colleagues and honored guests, this year throughout Missouri and the nation we will celebrate the bicentennial of Lewis and Clark's Voyage of Discovery. It will be a wonderful year of celebrations around our state and a moment to reflect on the great achievements that have gone before us.

We should embrace, learn and take strength from history, but we can't change it. Our mission in this chamber is to change the future.

6 Journal of the House

The clearest view to the future is through the eyes of a child. During Thanksgiving week, my husband and I added a new child to our family. We traveled to the former Soviet Union the week of Thanksgiving to adopt our son, Jack.

We saw the remnants of the failed experiment that was Communism. We saw people whose spirits were broken, where living in a house was unusual, where cars were luxuries, and where tens of thousands of orphans wait to be adopted. Communism was an eighty-year experiment that proved that only through freedom will humanity flourish.

When we as legislators look forward through the eyes of Missouri's children, we must ask ourselves: What will the future be like? And, what am I doing about it?

In the future, I hope that this House will continue to be filled with public servants from every walk of life, who choose to leave behind their families, their businesses and their homes to serve here. I want to thank every member of this body for the sacrifices you make to be here.

I especially want to thank the families and friends of all the members. Coming here to serve is a privilege, staying home and keeping the fires burning is a tireless, largely thankless job and on behalf of all us to all of our loved ones thank you.

In the future, I also hope that this House continues to have the dedicated, selfless staff that serves every member and all Missouri every day. In advance of all the late nights and intense days, thank you to all those who work for the House.

When I look to the future, I want a Missouri where every Missourian lives up to their potential and steps up to their responsibility.

If we all pause for a moment and think about what we really wish for every Missourian, I think regardless of party and regardless of whether your district is urban or rural, the answers are the same.

Each and every one of us hopes, prays and works for a Missouri where every citizen is safe, healthy, sheltered, well fed, well educated, able to find a good job, and has the chance to dream and live big dreams.

We were elected by our fellow citizens to do much more than hope for a better future. We each need to ask ourselves: what am I doing about it?

First, we need to cut the ties that bind the potential of Missourians. For too long, state government has asked our fellow citizens to do their very best with one arm tied behind their back.

The first rope that should be cut is all the partisan fighting. It is time we start focusing on how we can empower people in and out of state government to live up to their potential. There are thousands of good people in state government who work hard and who know how things can be run better.

Instead of spending another session arguing over 1.1 percent, it is time we start talking about the quality of state services. 1.1 percent -- that was the difference between the budget proposed by the Governor and the budget truly agreed to and finally passed and signed into law.

If we do it again, Missourians will ask us all to answer the question of why we spent an entire session arguing over that 1.1 percent when they are feeling that they are not getting their money's worth on the other 98.9 percent.

Last year, I stood here and in a confrontational tone told the Governor a list of things he better not do. Amazingly, he choose not to take all my advice. This year, I say, Governor, I have no advice for you, but I am extending a hand. Let's leave last year's fights to last year.

Missourians know that we spend more than $19 billion of their money every year on state government, and they want to know why that isn't enough. Why are there still failing schools in Missouri -- often the very schools where we spend the most money per pupil? Why are the roads crumbling when we are spending part of the money for highways on other state services? Why do we have nearly twice as many people on Medicaid as the national average and yet some of our fellow citizens still have to use the emergency room as their primary doctor?

Together, we must answer those tough questions by building a Missouri that begins with accountability and ends with greater opportunity.

We are in a competition every day to be the place where businesses want to come, where doctors want to practice, where the best and brightest want to live. Only when each and every person is living up to their potential do we continue to be the place where groundbreaking medical research is done, food production leads the world, technology provides new jobs, and all of that productivity allows us to take care of those who need our help.

Let's be clear, the reason our disabled, our elderly, our abused children have a better life here than they do anywhere else in the world is because an incredible people have been set free to think, do and thrive. It is the science, the productivity and ingenuity of people left free that produces enough food, health care, housing, technology and compassion to care for our fellow man. We must cut every rope that holds back the ingenuity, the innovation, and the creativity of Missourians who can be problem-solvers.

Today, Missouri government stands between our great people and their potential. Taxation is necessary. It funds schools, transportation and services for the elderly and disabled, but people who don't have jobs don't pay taxes.

At this moment, when the economy appears to be taking a turn for the better as some people are starting to go back to work, we, as a government, cannot reach out our hand and skim off the top the first pay raises that people have seen in some time and the growth that is creating those new jobs.

Job creation must remain priority one.

Beyond taxation there are so many ways in which this government ties the hands of Missourians.

Look at the affordability and accessibility of health care. We have statutes on the books today that make health care more expensive and less available. At the top of the list of reforms that must be made is tort reform. We must free our physicians from frivolous, malicious, purposeless lawsuits.

In every town in this state, you need only ask the doctors what has happened to the cost of their medical malpractice insurance coverage. Time after time you will hear that the rate has increased by some ridiculous percentage -- in some instances as much as 500 percent without a claim.

The net result of these lawsuits run amuck is that doctors, where they can, are passing on those costs to patients and insurers, and in far too many cases are closing down their practices.

In Macon, Missouri, at this time last year, there were three physicians delivering babies. Last year during the legislative session, one of those physicians, Dr. Julie Wood, came here to testify in favor of tort reform. When tort reform was not signed into law, Dr. Julie Wood stopped practicing in Macon and the other two physicians stopped delivering babies. Now, the closest place for a Macon woman to have a baby is nearly an hour's drive away.

Our medical infrastructure is crumbling, and if we do nothing else this session, we will reduce the cost of medical liability insurance by passing meaningful tort reform.

Our state government stands between Missourians and jobs by making it more expensive to employ people in Missouri than it is to employ people in surrounding states -- the cost of unemployment compensation is just one example.

Our unemployment compensation fund is bankrupt, and everyday, every dollar paid to the unemployed is borrowed from the federal government at an interest rate of 6 percent -- a loan that must be repaid by employers.

Last year, this General Assembly passed a bill to bring the unemployment compensation fund back to solvency, but the Governor vetoed it. Governor, this year we must find a way to end this hidden tax on employers.

A quality public education is the one certain way to free all Missourians from the bonds of poverty and to open gates of opportunity. Making education the state's top funding priority goes beyond rhetoric. It requires that we make tough choices, that we choose to fund education even if it means cuts to other state departments.

Last year this General Assembly made that choice. While other parts of state government were cut almost $400 million, total funding for education actually increased by $186 million.

We balanced the budget, without a tax increase, and made education our highest priority. Let's do it again!

Our state government is standing between abused and neglected children and safety. There are more than 12,000 children who are currently our children, as a state government. They are those children who have been taken from their homes because they were being abused and neglected. We are failing these children. Some have died in foster care, hundreds have died because, even though we had reports of abuse and neglect, we didn't intervene; and there are many foster children we can't even locate. A child living in a reign of terror won't be given the chance to live up to his or her potential.

We have had more than enough audits, investigations, and even deaths to tell us we must reform this broken system.

With freedom comes responsibility. I invite every Missourian to join with government to solve these problems, to step up to the responsibility that lies with a people to whom so much has been given. Each and every citizen can give of our own special talents and address the most pressing needs in our communities. Step forward and help, volunteer, be a mentor. If your school needs help, answer the call. If a shelter needs food, give of your treasure. If a child needs a friend, take the time.

God has blessed us so greatly, I humbly ask that he continue to bless the work of this House and the future of our state.

The Bill of Rights was read by Miss Nykia Thomas, pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Yesterday, Speaker Hanaway said, "Freedom makes all the difference" between the human progress in our country and that in other countries that are less free.

Let us pray. Lord, our God, we thank You for the priceless gift of freedom. To nearly all of us it came with the gift of being born in this land, this very free society. Therefore, our freedom is Your gift, O Lord.

Your holy word teaches us, "Be free, yet without using freedom as a pretext for evil," (I Peter 2:16). By Your helping grace and Your inspiration may we live up to this word.

Again Your word urges us to remain focused upon the truth, in our daily life and in our work, for "the truth will set you free," (John 8:32). For the sake of those whom we serve, may we live by this word.

Lord God, through our work in the Missouri House of Representatives, help us to play our part in the life of this state, that its attention may be directed toward justice, peace, and the true freedom of all its people.

Finally, we pray for the safety of our men and women in our armed forces, especially those serving in Afghanistan and in Iraq. Their efforts have so much to do with freedom, both in those lands and in our own. Bring them safely back home to us.

All this we ask of You, our God and Father, living and reigning in perfect freedom forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the first day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 12, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Smith (118) in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, One from whom all blessings flow, it is written, "Blessed is the one who finds wisdom and the one who gains understanding." Even so, we seek wisdom and divine insight as we begin this week in Your service.

We are asking that You fill us with such wisdom and understanding that we might indeed fulfill Your purpose for this legislative session. We also pray that our outward lives, which men see, would bring credit to You, this state, our families and ourselves.

May we be balanced in our approach to our duties, make adjustments when necessary, and may the timing of our words be exact.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

We praise You, O Lord our God, who created the sun to rule the day and the moon to rule the night. We thank You for this morning's shining sun, which stirs hope in us.

We are, indeed, back to work, finishing today, one calendar week of the 2004 session of the Missouri House of Representatives.

Lord, may Your gentle grace guide our minds and wills to speak and act for our constituents, that we might truly represent them. In our own lives and about life in the districts we serve, give us discernment between needs and wants, between the issues that merit top priority or lesser attention.

At the same time, may Your Holy Spirit give us the vision and the courage to see and seek the common good.

During our work this day, may we grow in knowledge of what is just and true in the various topics placed before us.

We give thanks for the great trust placed in us by the people of our district, and we give thanks to You for guiding the course of our lives to the dignity and honor of serving the people as their representatives.

We give You thanks and pray to You at this hour, because You are our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we humbly approach You today on the basis of Your word that instructs us, "Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it." Help us to render what is proper and good to the people we are elected to serve for they are due it.

May we not devise harm against or contend with one another without cause, but may we function and work together for the common good.

We are positioned to make a difference and we will.

May You also continue to hold our families in Your hands and near Your heart as we serve apart from them.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

By

Chief Justice Ronnie White

January 14, 2004

President Maxwell, Speaker Hanaway, distinguished members of the Senate and House of Representatives, honorable statewide elected officials, esteemed colleagues of the Court, and honored guests –

You know, it is indeed a pleasure to be here with you this morning. As I walked through the doors back there, I thought of how amazing this is, after having served in this body.

I want to take a minute and thank Speaker Hanaway for attending the kick-off celebration for Martin Luther King, Jr., in St. Louis on Saturday night at Harris-Stowe State College. The people there were very, very proud and pleased to see her and the bipartisan delegation of house members who were also with her.

I'd also like to take a moment and introduce two people who have been with me since the beginning – my wife, Sylvia ... and our son, Ronnie II.

I come before you today as Chief Justice to perform the traditional duty of sharing with you the state of our judiciary. I remember the first time I came into this chamber almost 15 years ago as a newly elected representative. It is reassuring as I stand before you today to see some familiar faces from that very first day.

Senator Maida Coleman from St. Louis was one of the people who helped me to get here. When I was running for elective office in 1989 and going door to door in my district, I happened to stop by Senator Coleman's house. You could not imagine what I got when I knocked on the door. She began to tell me all the things I needed to do when I got elected, so I thought about it and I said, "Well, why don't you come out of the house and help me do it?" And look at where she is today! And I want to say to you, Senator Coleman, I am very proud of you and pleased to be your friend.

And after Senator Coleman helped me to get here, one of the first people I met was Senator Mary Bland from Kansas City. In fact, during my time in the House, I was her seatmate, and sometimes after some bruising committee battles and deep debates, I would come back to my chair and sit down, and Senator Bland would say, "Representative White, I'm praying for you." Well as I stand before you today, I want to say to you, Senator, your prayers have been answered. And she would also follow up and say, "You're going to be all right." Well, after 15 years, a lot of time has passed and things have happened, I want to say to you, Senator Bland, I am all right.

While tradition and duty require me to speak to you today, a much more immediate duty compels continued communication with each other throughout the rest of this year. As someone who once served in this very room, I empathize with you as you face yet another historically challenging year. It is no secret that painstaking choices will have to be made – funding our public schools, helping children in our foster care system, dealing with the state's budget difficulties. Our charge, then, is to work together wherever we can so that those hard choices are made in the most informed and cooperative environment possible.

Last session, the judiciary offered leadership and solutions when it was required of us, and we offered information and cooperation when leadership was required of you. This cooperation between our branches of government made possible the important work of the Commission on Children's Justice. This same cooperation produced a judiciary budget that sustained difficult cuts but still preserved the judicial branch's ability to fulfill its essential role for the citizens of this state.

In addition, we collaborated with you to find places where our effectiveness could be improved. Even before the passage of House Bill 600, the judicial branch was generating $370 million in positive economic impact each year. I'm not talking about lawsuits here – I'm talking about the court costs, fines, fees and restitution that the courts collect for the state and its citizens. Through the passage of HB 600, we advocated and you adopted changes that will allow us to collect outstanding court costs and fines more efficiently at no cost to taxpayers other than that necessary to operate the judicial branch of government. While this money alone will not alleviate the state's financial situation, it provides a small measure of relief to some, particularly school districts – and it sends an important message about justice to those who believe they can utilize the service of justice and violate our laws without paying.

But this is just one example of what we can achieve when we work together. We must continue in this spirit of mutual cooperation for this year and for years to come – no matter who may come and go from the office of Judge, Senator, or Representative.

In that spirit of cooperation, then, let me relate to you where the judicial branch stands now, and where, with your help, we hope to be in years to come. As I stated at our annual Bar meeting in October, I have a firm commitment to doing whatever I can to promote a more professional, diverse and technologically integrated future for the justice community in this state. Let me also reaffirm our commitment to saving money where we can and working with you to make our judiciary a more efficient one.

At the outset, I want to thank all those people who make our efficiency possible – our employees. We all know that it is the employees across this state who provide direct services to the citizens every day and who are the face of Missouri state government. And with the budget constraints over the past several years, many of these employees are bringing less money home to their families now than they were four or five years ago. I request, therefore, that you give these people every due consideration even in the face of the current fiscal problems. For if we cannot keep our best and brightest state employees, we all suffer.

Now, as to the issue of professionalism, let me say that it is an honor to serve as Chief Justice with such distinguished colleagues. For many years and through many different judges, we at the Court have attempted to create an environment that is collegial, not combative – and always dedicated to preserving the integrity of the law. While our opinions differ on occasion – although not nearly as frequently as one might think – we always seek to ensure that the time-honored processes by which we make our decisions remain intact.

At least to some extent, I believe we owe this high quality of my colleagues on the Supreme Court – regardless of the political affiliation of the governor who appointed them – to a nonpartisan court plan that for more than 60 years has made our state an example to the nation.

Missouri itself has changed drastically since its voters first adopted the nonpartisan plan in 1940. Counties that were once considered rural are now so large in population that they rival even our largest cities, and the needs of their courts have become more complex. In addition, as election costs inevitably rise, unforeseen pressures are placed on members of the judiciary as well as on those who seek to replace them. In even the best of scenarios, the appearance of the intrusion of politics – and money – into the judicial process becomes difficult to avoid.

For these reasons, I announced my intention last July to discuss the expansion of the nonpartisan court plan into Greene, Jefferson and St. Charles Counties, the three next largest counties that do not already operate under the plan. In my discussions with local bar associations, I have made it clear that, whatever we do, we must do in full cooperation with the circuits – and more importantly the people – because it is pointless to proceed if the citizens in those areas do not want change. However, we should at least be open to discussing and determining whether current systems continue to meet our constantly evolving needs and to do so in an atmosphere of civility and respect. Our talks so far have been well received, and I believe that many who originally had misgivings about the plan have begun to think positively about its potential value. In fact, the Springfield Metropolitan Bar Association voted 2-1 to support the nonpartisan plan in Greene County, and discussions are underway in St. Charles County. I hope to speak with the Jefferson County Bar Association in the near future.

Ultimately, these decisions must be made locally. And let me be clear – we are not asking the general assembly in any way to expand the nonpartisan plan. Even I seek only to act as a conduit for discussion. I realize that many of you in this room may have misgivings about my proposal, and reasonable minds can certainly differ on this issue. I therefore welcome your input and offer to conduct a legislative forum so you can discuss your positions – positive or negative – and your important voices can be heard on this issue.

In addition to serving as a facilitator for public discussions about the nonpartisan court plan, the judicial branch must also review its own internal court policies to seek out ways in which we can improve professionalism. Our judicial committees and bar committees remain dedicated to this very cause. As one excellent example of such a review, last fall the Supreme Court Family Court Committee completed the Missouri Resource Guide for Best Practices in Child Abuse and Neglect Cases. Nearly a thousand professionals in the juvenile justice field – including every single member of the judicial branch who is assigned to work on juvenile cases – attended cross-training in these best practices.

I hope that, through efforts such as these, you will continue to see the judiciary as a willing partner for positive change. Our doors remain open – your ideas are welcome, and we hope that you work with us as we strive to create the judicial system of the future.

There are many ways in which our present system demonstrates our promising future. Our internationally award-winning efforts to use advanced technologies in the courts have done much to improve judicial services, and technology holds the promise of even greater returns if we can capitalize on this investment.

I realize that many of my predecessors have discussed this program with you, but for me it retains personal importance. In 1993, when I was still in the state legislature, I sponsored House Bill 681 – the first bill seeking to automate our state courts. Although not many seemed to share this vision at the time, I realized then that the future of Missouri courts would lie in their ability to embrace technology in their efforts to provide service, justice and access to the citizens of this state.

Well, now the "future" is here. We all realize that advanced technology is an absolute business necessity, not a hypothetical dream or automation project. The state has an automated payroll system and automated driving records, law enforcement has the automated Missouri Uniform Law Enforcement System, and you here in the legislature have automated drafting, filing and tracking of bills and amendments. Similarly, for our judicial branch to remain able to provide exceptional service to the public effectively, we must continue to scrape our way into the 21st century by finding a way to afford those technological tools essential to an effective judicial system.

I thank each of you for recognizing this need last session through the passage of Senate Bill 448. With the leadership of Senator Matt Bartle and Representative Richard Byrd, we were able to extend the court automation fee until 2009, preserving a valuable business tool for the operation of court technology. I want to publicly extend my thanks to them and to all of you who continue to support this vitally important effort.

Although there is still much to be done, there is much that is already working well. The state's online case information system, Case.net, and case management program, Justice Information System – commonly known as JIS – are improving the business of our courts in many ways that may not be obvious to the casual observer but that would be noticeable immediately if they were no longer present.

For example, the general assembly relies on the judicial branch to collect all the fees that fund many worthy causes across the state – including the traffic fines that support our local schools and the crime victims' compensation fund. For courts using JIS, it took only a flip of the switch to begin collecting, tracking and distributing the new costs quickly and efficiently. It is not as easy for the 40 other counties that do not yet have JIS due largely to budget constraints. And for some of those courts, can you believe that their clerk staff had to manage the six new fees created last session manually by adding six new envelopes to the pegboard?

Just imagine how your day-to-day business in this building would be different if you still had to rely on typewriters and carbon copies to circulate amendments to your legislative packages. I'm sure your staff would be horrified by the very thought! Consider this: we still have areas in this state where the courts account for hundreds of thousands – if not millions – of dollars using manual accounting systems. We cannot continue to move some 800,000 new cases and account for some $370 million annually when some courts still are using systems that were designed in the 1950s.

But technology is not just about making us more efficient at our jobs. With that efficiency also comes significant cost savings and the ability to generate revenue. For example, a study we recently conducted in three counties identified a total of $2.3 million in costs and fines that litigants have failed to pay – money we now can collect under HB 600 – at least in those counties that have JIS. If that is what we can do in just three counties, imagine the millions of dollars the judicial branch may be able to collect statewide. I must emphasize that this effort, along with others, seeks to go after those who fail to pay their obligations. While to some extent it is about money, more importantly it is about the enforcement of court orders and accountability to the laws you pass.

Judicial technology is also about facilitating the provision of immediate services to children and others at risk, ensuring an efficient investment of time and resources into each case, eliminating duplicate paperwork ... and saving the state even more money. I hope you will continue to support this important investment of judicial technology.

Of course, the system is capable of providing many more benefits, but fiscal prudence mandates that we be creative in discovering new ways to bring more counties into the information age. For example, although no new state dollars were available, the Jackson County Circuit Court determined that JIS was vital enough to its business needs that it was able to implement the system without the state spending any significant dollars toward that effort.

We will, of course, continue to explore any option that allows us to move forward with technology, which is vital not only to the judicial branch but also to the interests of accountability to the laws you pass, to the interests of public safety, and to the interests of those who use our courts every day. This is why it is so important that, even in these challenging times, we all remain committed to doing what works and to changing what needs to be fixed. I look forward to working with you to ensure a bright technological future for the judicial system in Missouri.

While we look to the future in court technology, we also must look to the future of the people who practice law in this state. To do that, we must make every effort to improve racial and gender diversity. Our legal community should strive to be as diverse as the people who live in this great state, because equal access to justice can only be realized fully when there is equal opportunity for all to serve in our system of justice. When people come to our courthouses, they need to see that other people just like them have every opportunity to thrive in the Judiciary as a workplace. They need to feel vested in, rather than controlled by, our system of justice.

I think at times we take much for granted in this great country – particularly in relation to our government and its institutions. It has become all too commonplace today to engage in rhetoric that does not challenge us to be better. Unlike virtually any other country in the world, this is our government, yours and mine. The American justice system remains a beacon to the world in spite of its failings, perceived and real. It is a beacon because we, the citizens of this great country, have a vested interest in that system as our system of justice. For people to obtain justice, people must see that equal access to justice is more than just a vision ... they must see it as a reality.

So how does the judicial branch achieve this goal in concrete ways that can be implemented feasibly? First, through the Missouri plan, we must diversify our selection panels so that both selectors and those selected represent a wide cross-section of the citizenry. Without diversifying the ranks of those who aspire to become trial judges and appellate judges, we will struggle to develop the array of applicants we seek.

I believe it is clear that diversity must begin at the very earliest levels, from pre-law and paralegal programs to law school to entry-level positions throughout the legal community ... and perhaps even earlier than that ... so that in the future, diversity does not require effort but rather takes place as a matter of course in a profession where all facets of society are represented.

Already, progress has been made on this front, as my own experience illustrates. I can remember attending my first appellate section meeting at the 1994 judicial conference. I was the only African-American in attendance. That is because, of the 39 appellate judges in the state at that time, I was the only African-American judge among them, and there were only three women on the appellate court then. But time has passed, and the diversity of the appellate bench is getting better. I am now on the Supreme Court, and we have four African-American judges on the Court of Appeals, plus a total of nine women on the appellate bench, including my colleague at the Supreme Court, Laura Stith. We also have the first Jewish judge to serve on the Supreme Court, my friend Rick Teitelman.

However, this progress does not mean that the judicial branch is where it needs to be. So I invite you to help us in any way you can. Encourage the women and minorities in your constituencies to consider the law as a career whenever you can. Foster in them an interest in the legal system of this great state. Help us end this discussion by making Missouri a nationwide example of a diverse, innovative legal community – a legacy of which we can all be proud.

I truly believe the future of our entire judiciary can be bright for all – but only if we work with you to create it in the present. We remain willing to do our part, to lead when needed, and to aid you in implementing change when you seek it from us. We welcome the discussions brought forth by the Interim Committee on Judicial Resources, and we look forward to working with all parties in the interest of creating a more efficient, modernized judiciary in this session and in sessions to come. We continue to look for savings where we can, and we ask, out of respect for our different but co-equal responsibilities under the constitution, that we work together to find these savings. It is the responsibility of both the judiciary and the legislature to preserve essential judicial functions and maintain the effectiveness of the third branch of government.

In conclusion, we remain committed to providing greater service, access and justice throughout the state. In partnership with each of you, I am certain that our commitment will be fulfilled. Thank you for listening.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Gibbons.

Speaker Hanaway resumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 2004

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord God, You are Father of all peoples, those of every race, nation and creed. Your Holy Word inspired the founding fathers of our nation to write, "All...are created equal."

You raised up people like Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. both to challenge and lead our nation in living up to its own conviction of the equality of all. For this we thank You. During and after his lifetime, justice has grown among us; peace has taken deeper root.

Your Holy Spirit aids those with the eye of wisdom to see that still much racism and prejudice remain. Many of us were born into a certain culture of racism, with attitudes of prejudice instilled in us from our earliest years.

In the name of our forebearers and in our own name, we ask Your forgiveness. We thank You for helping us to rise above much of this.

We ask You, God and Father of all, to continue to purify us by the practice of our faith, and by the discipline and the events of our lives, so that our service in the Missouri House of Representatives this year be clean, with the integrity of no prejudice at all.

Keep safe all travelers during the coming weekend. Protect from injury and death all our men and women in the armed forces.

We praise You! For You are our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mary Bast, Amanda Bast, Ray Bast, Teresa Bast, Hannah Bast, Emily Kopff, Caroline Kopff and Audrey Lee Erdman.

The Journal of the fifth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Self in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

(Here are words from the Old Testament prophet Daniel that might come from our voices on a day like today.)

"Cold and chill, bless the Lord.

Dew and rain, bless the Lord.

Frost and chill, bless the Lord.

Ice and snow, bless the Lord.

Nights and days, bless the Lord." (Daniel 3:67-71)

Almighty God, Holy Lord, the political caucuses of last night and the State of the Union Address of tonight seize our attention and extend our vision all the way to the elections of November. Send Your Holy Spirit to work so deeply in the minds and hearts of all concerned, that the outcomes, all over our nation, are within the boundary of Your Holy will.

We, for our part, have our work of today and the days ahead. Help us to take up our work as women and men in public service to the people of our State. Help us engage in the politics that is wise, diplomatic, even shrewd, the politics that shows us to be true servants of all the people. Give us the courage and wisdom to respond to the demands of the common good rather than unworthy pressure, so that our work may remain within the boundary of Your Holy will.

We pray to You, our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashton Luttrull and Sydney Luttrull.

The Journal of the sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2004

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we draw near to You to receive the necessary wisdom and understanding for this day in order that our plans and pursuits may not be fruitless.

Help us to make moment-by-moment adjustments to Your will and Your way for us. May our attempts to resolve the business of state proceed unobstructed and may our vision of the future be clear.

Give us eyes to discern what lays ahead, ears to hear one another truthfully, and the boldness to speak our heart's passion at the right time for the right reason.

Thank You for being a very present help in time of need.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
BY GOVERNOR BOB HOLDEN

January 21, 2004

Mr. President, Madam Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Distinguished State Officials, Mr. Chief Justice, Honored Members of the Missouri Supreme Court, Members of the 92nd General Assembly, First Lady Lori Hauser Holden, and my fellow citizens:

I come before you today to discuss the state of our state ... and to reflect on the state of state government and the state of bipartisanship in Missouri.

At a time of great challenge for our nation, both here and abroad, we in Missouri have seen our share of hardship and sacrifice. A great number of our citizens have left home and family in the service of our country, including the brave volunteers who serve in Missouri's National Guard.

That is why I think it's important today to begin with a remembrance of those Missouri citizens who have fallen during Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. Their sacrifice is a reminder that here in the safety of our capital city, our disagreements should never be characterized as battles, but rather as the actions of a democracy that these soldiers gave their lives defending. And we are forever in their solemn debt.

These are the names of our fallen servicemen, and I'd like to follow this reading with a moment of silence in their honor:

Specialist Jonathan Barnes from Anderson, Missouri. 21 years old.

Sergeant Michael Barry from Kansas City, Missouri. 29 years old.

Specialist Joel Bertoldie from Independence, Missouri. 20 years old.

Sergeant Travis Burkhardt from Edina, Missouri. 26 years old.

Second Lieutenant Benjamin J. Colgan from Aurora, Missouri. 30 years old.

Aviation Electrician's Mate Samuel Patrick Cox from Kansas City, Missouri. 21 years old.

Private First Class Jesse Givens from Springfield, Missouri. 34 years old.

Staff Sergeant Jamie Huggins of Hume, Missouri. 26 years old.

Technical Sergeant William Kerwood from Houston, Missouri. 37 years old.

Staff Sergeant Daniel L. Kisling, Jr. of Neosho, Missouri. 31 years old.

Captain Benedict Smith from Monroe City, Missouri. 29 years old.

Private First Class Jeremiah Smith from Odessa, Missouri. 25 years old.

Staff Sergeant Robert Anthony Stever from Springfield, Missouri. 38 years old.

Private First Class Adam L. Thomas from LaPlata, Missouri. 21 years old.

And Sergeant Donald Walters from Kansas City, Missouri. 33 years old.

It is with a heavy heart that we remember these young men of Missouri...some of our finest. And we are humbled by their bravery.

For those of us in this chamber, let us respect their sacrifice by putting our own disagreements in proper perspective. In the heat of political debate, it is not uncommon to hear the language of war.

As if partisan politics could be compared to the ultimate sacrifice on a battlefield. It can't. And all of us know that. I call upon each and every one of us to begin anew - to put reason before rancor and to recognize just how fortunate we all are.

Let us look to the families of these heroic soldiers, gathered here in our gallery. We honor you and pledge our unrelenting efforts for shared progress for every citizen of Missouri.

As we head into this new year, we face many difficult questions. But as many of you know, I am an optimistic man.

It is my nature to see the good in people and to seek common ground on difficult questions. So before I address the challenges ahead, let's take a moment to look at the health of our state and the growing strength of our economy.

At a time when our nation is just beginning to emerge from one of the darkest recessions in memory, Missouri is in sound economic condition.

Missouri has a long history in aviation and the airline industry, and our state suffered more than its share of lost airline jobs in the wake of September 11th. But in spite of this setback, our unemployment rate has remained below the national average.

In fact, we have more new businesses than ever before, and we've created a net gain of 30,000 new jobs since my last State of the State address. The rest of the country is losing jobs - 220,000 net lost jobs last year alone.

But we created more jobs in Missouri last year than all but seven states. And, in fact, we created more jobs than any of our surrounding states. We are bucking the national trend, and it's something we should all take great pride in achieving.

Out of all fifty states, we rank fifth in productivity, twelfth for small business startups and we're one of only seven states with a Triple-A bond rating - a significant measure of our state's fiscal health and potential, and of our stewardship of state government.

These have been difficult times. But in the middle of our state's name is the word "our." Not "mine," not "yours," but "our" - as in "our" strength and "our" people. Together, we're all rising above tough times. There have been important issues where we have been able to find common ground.

Support and respect for our veterans is one such example. We should take great pride in the new 200 bed veteran's home in Mt. Vernon and the new wing at the St. Louis Veterans Home, which is nearing completion.

We have also completed two new veterans cemeteries, bringing the total to four. And the Veterans Task Force, created with the help of Lt. Governor Joe Maxwell, has assisted in our efforts to launch one of the most aggressive veterans outreach programs in state history. We've helped over 2,000 veterans receive benefits they didn't know they were entitled to. To me, it's the true fulfillment of public service to be able to give full honors and benefits to those who've served our country.

Working to protect Missouri jobs and support Missouri workers is another important accomplishment of the past year, and I salute everyone in this chamber who has played a role. Speaker Hanaway and President Pro Tem Kinder, we could not have kept the Ford Hazelwood plant in our state without a united effort, and I'm grateful for all that you did in joining me to help protect those 2,600 high-paying jobs.

But in the end, we must also recognize that Ford would not have stayed in Missouri if our workers did not warrant their confidence. Those who work the line held the line.

On the other side of our state, in Kansas City, H&R Block is building their new world headquarters, making a long term commitment to Kansas City and keeping nearly two thousand jobs in-state.

We protected the American Airlines overhaul base and their 1,700 jobs.

And we just recently received word that Ford will build the first hybrid Escape at their Claycomo plant, helping to secure the jobs of 5,500 Missouri autoworkers.

These American Airlines and Ford jobs, in particular, make another important point. Whether it's ensuring the safety of air travelers, or helping build the next generation of environmentally sound vehicles, Missouri workers are entrusted with the safety of families both in the air and on the ground, and there's no one I trust more with the future of Missouri's economy.

There are a number of examples of businesses starting in Missouri, staying in Missouri, or looking to move to Missouri. But I also realize that for a recently laid off worker, these stories of success offer little comfort at a difficult time. But know that as your Governor, I will continue to work tirelessly to strengthen our economy and create 21st century jobs - jobs that build on our native strengths and diversity here in Missouri.

That's why, today, I am calling on the Missouri General Assembly to pass my 2004 Jobs Now plan. By eliminating three outdated tax credits and redirecting the savings to local infrastructure projects, we can put the new revenue to work by putting Missourians to work.

The Jobs Now plan would answer critical needs in our local communities, including waste water systems, industrial parks, and broadband telecommunication systems. It would redirect existing revenue, leverage non-state investments, and is cost-neutral to the budget. Many of these projects are ready to go. Let's pass the Jobs Now plan and get them started.

The future of our state's economy also rests on the promise of new energy and new technologies. By energy, I mean a renewed commitment to ethanol that helps both our corn-producing farmers and our energy-consuming citizens.

And by new technologies, I mean the development of life sciences in both our business and academic communities. Energy and technology can lift up both urban and rural Missouri together.

And as all of you know, this son of Birch Tree believes there's no point in reaching the new frontier if half the family is left behind. That's why I'm proud to announce today a bipartisan effort to fully fund our state's ethanol program.

By working to expand the world market for ethanol and to support our state's ethanol production, we can not only strengthen our farming communities, we can also improve the environment and help lessen our country's dependence on Persian Gulf oil.

Our farmers may have never thought of themselves as having a role in Middle East politics, but let me say this - instead of turning swords into plowshares, we can use plowshares to force down the swords of war. Lowering demand for Persian Gulf oil and removing our soldiers from this cauldron of conflict should be a national imperative, and Missouri farmers can help lead the way.

We are also uniquely positioned in the Midwest to be the leader in developing industrial applications for life sciences. We have a top notch university system at the center of the world's most fertile cropland.

We are home to over one hundred life sciences companies already, placing us in the top third of all states. And, in fact, the Bio-based Manufacturers Association just moved their headquarters from Memphis to St. Louis. They wanted to be closer to what we call the heart of the Bio-Belt.

Whether it's pharmaceuticals, bio-technology, or medical research - life science technologies will create the jobs of tomorrow. And I want Missouri to be...not just the gateway to the West...but also the gateway to the future.

But how do we get there? Community leaders throughout Missouri have all told me the same thing. And I'm certain all of you have heard this message as well.

Whether it's a hospital administrator in St. Joseph, a tool and dye manufacturer in Lee's Summit, a printer in St. Charles, or the owner of a garage in any town in Missouri - they're all saying the same thing.

"Good schools are critical to the success of our business. We need educated workers or we can't compete."

One of those garage owners made the point very clearly. He said, "If you don't believe I need workers with a good education, just lift the hood of your car and look at the engine."

Manufacturers choose communities with an educated workforce. Young doctors and other professionals establish their practices and begin their families in towns with good schools. And companies transferring their workers look for the best schools for their workers' children.

As I've traveled the country promoting Missouri - and some of you have been with me in many of those meetings - wherever we go, we're asked about the quality of our schools and the abilities of our workforce.

In fact, one plant manager in Hannibal told me that his company decides where to expand based largely upon the quality of an area's community college. Our people should take a backseat to no one...I'm proud of our citizens, and I know you are, too. We should never sell their talents short.

But unfortunately...and you knew I was coming to this...last year the talents of our people were indeed sold short.

For the first time in the history of our state, this legislature cut the total education budget by hundreds of millions of dollars and endangered the futures of countless children. Over the last decade, we had been investing in our public schools and getting results.

Our eighth grade students are above the national average in math skills, we have made significant gains in reading proficiency, our ACT scores continue to rise, and we have 176 schools of distinction when measured on our scale of tough standards. More of our students are taking a rigorous curriculum, we've more than doubled the number of nationally certified teachers, and our schools are being held accountable with school report cards.

But after a decade of investment and progress, you passed last year's education cuts twice over my veto with a great flourish of bravado. If last year's education cuts are allowed to stand, all of these gains are in great jeopardy.

There is nothing moral in raising standards and expectations at a struggling school, only to deny the necessary funding. Look at this through a child's eyes - first we encouraged them to dream, then you denied them the means. That's not bravado. That's just cruel.

Those of you on the other side of the aisle chose to defend tax breaks for corporations at the expense of our children's education. And we're already seeing the consequences of your actions.

College tuition is up as much as 20 percent. One thousand four hundred teachers have lost their jobs. Some kindergarten classes have over 30 students, and alternative schools for disruptive students are being shut down. This, of course, leads to more disruption in the classroom and higher dropout rates.

Some of you obviously think there is courage in cutting education funding. But where is the courage in merely shifting the burden onto local property owners?

Where is the courage in forcing your local constituents to raise property taxes to make up the difference?

And where is the courage in siding with gambling and tobacco interests over the welfare of our children in public schools?

Your failure to meet your constitutional obligations has caused the courts to be dragged back into Missouri schools.

Many of you preach the politics of less government. Well, you brought the courts into our classrooms. It's time you take responsibility and help get the lawyers and the lawsuits out.

Let us be frank and realistic about public school funding. Your approach will have the consequence of forcing local property tax increases.

Some in this chamber may live in communities of great means. And as you look out the windows of your home, a small increase in property taxes may not seem like much of a sacrifice. But you are wrong. Every community has those on the margins who are barely surviving - who can hardly afford the property taxes they already pay. Maybe you can't see them from your front window, but they exist all the same.

Many communities will never be able to increase property taxes enough to make up for last year's education cuts.

The ultimate end of your abdication of duty is starvation and consolidation. By starving local communities of education funding, you leave some with no other choice but to shut down schools and deprive those children of opportunity.

You may not see these children from the comfort of your front window. But they exist all the same.

And finally, there are seniors throughout Missouri who cannot afford higher property taxes, even though their hearts are with our schools. They, like my parents and some of yours, sacrificed their entire lives to provide their children with a college education. Often it was an education that they themselves never had.

You may never see these seniors from your window. But they exist all the same. You have asked in this chamber before - “what part of ‘No’ do I not understand?”

Well, I say in return that I will never understand doing real and lasting harm to our children and seniors. I believe our citizens deserve better than that.

Last year, we disagreed on whether Missouri had a spending problem or a revenue problem. Let’s not have that disagreement again. Throughout my years as Governor, I have worked to control spending. I have cut more than 3,000 jobs from state government and over $1.2 billion in government spending...more than any other Governor in Missouri history.

Missouri is not a free spending state. In fact, we rank 46th in per capita spending and 49th in the average salary of our government employees.

During last year’s budget debate, I accepted every cut you put forward, and still you could not provide me with a balanced budget without devastating education. You cut all the fat you could find, so cutting was clearly not the entire solution.

This year, I will continue my efforts to reduce waste and improve government efficiency. In fact, I have identified another $100 million in program and service reductions that are part of my overall plan to balance our budget.

But the essence of our problem is unchanged. Yes, we have reached agreement on projected revenues for next year. But they won’t be near enough to repair the damage that you have done to Missouri schools.

If we are to meet our responsibilities to educate our children, we will need additional revenue through the least painful means. I will not rest until we have restored the funding you cut from schools in this state. If you thought this issue was settled, think again.

You already know my plan to raise revenue...increasing the cigarette tax and casino taxes, closing corporate loopholes, and placing a small surcharge on the income tax of the wealthiest 1.4 percent of Missourians.

You’ve heard my plan before. And you have spoken. But the vast majority of Missourians haven’t spoken. Your refusal to allow our citizens to vote on this plan robs them of their voice and of their opportunity to succeed.

I think Missouri is better than that. One way or another, the education cuts you inflicted last year must not stand. I say this not to stand against you...but because I have a duty to stand up for Missouri’s children.

By increasing revenues and closing corporate loopholes, we can restore school funding without a general tax increase. We can add the money necessary to improve our foster care system without a general tax increase.

And we can give modest raises to our state workers - like those who work in foster care or child abuse prevention. Some have not seen a cost of living increase in three years. Keep in mind our state employees are working people who face the same challenges and needs as any other working person, and they deserve our respect. They are not simply expendable boxes on an organizational chart.

Even those professionals that some of you belittle as “middle management bureaucrats” - they keep this complex operation running, and they protect our citizens. State employees are being asked to do more with less every year.

My budget, while providing additional cuts, does give a slight raise to these hard working Missourians, and believe me, when the lives of our most vulnerable are at stake, keeping our best people on the job is not asking too much.

I believe in looking forward. And that is a part of our shared history in Missouri.

As you know, I often speak in these State of the State addresses from the perspective of history. And this year, we celebrate one of our country's most historic events - the two hundredth anniversary of Lewis and Clark's incredible journey. Their exploration of the Missouri River is a truly inspiring tale of heroism and daring. In spite of many obstacles, they pressed forward on their journey west.

But today, I think it is important to honor the heroes of our time...seemingly ordinary people who perform extraordinary service. The soldiers we honored today knew the dangers of their job. But they got up every day, pressed forward, and faced them anyway.

We will never know the true depth of their courage or their fear, but we do know this - we know they will be remembered. And in the memory of those who loved them, they will always be young.

I believe each of us has a calling. For those soldiers, it was defending something larger than themselves.

For our teachers, it's rising to the challenge of shaping our youngest, most vulnerable minds.

For our state workers, it's securing the safety and well-being of our citizens.

And for our citizens, it's helping secure a brighter future for generations to come.

For those of us in this chamber, our calling is simple - we must work together to move Missouri forward.

This is not a battlefield. It's public service. No more talk of war. Let us talk of getting something done for the people of Missouri.

Thank you, God bless you, and may God bless this great state.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Gibbons.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Committee on Rules, Chairman Crowell reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HR 71, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 71

WHEREAS, the New Source Review Program under the Federal Clean Air Act has been seen by some as confusing, in need of clarification and has been the subject of debate over many years; and

WHEREAS, the primary source of confusion involves questions over definitions within the federal regulations, namely "modification", "repair", and "routine maintenance"; and

WHEREAS, further evidence of confusion and lack of objective standards within the federal regulations can be seen in the numerous lawsuits which have been filed in recent years by the Environmental Protection Agency challenging work performed by individuals as violations of the New Source Review Rules; and

WHEREAS, on October 27, 2003, the EPA published a rule that provided some clarification, the Equipment Replacement Provision, 68 C.F.R. Section 61, 248-61, 280; and

WHEREAS, the Equipment Replacement Provision provides a bright line test for determining when the replacement of broken or deteriorating equipment is "routine"; and

WHEREAS, the Equipment Replacement Provision provides states and industry with definitive standards for judging source "modifications"; and

WHEREAS, the state of New York, along with eleven other states, filed suit in an action styled State of New York, et al v. U.S. EPA, No. 03-01380 (D.D.C., 2003), to have this new rule declared invalid; and

WHEREAS, it is believed that the new rule provides the clarity with which the regulated community deserves to possess when considering improvements to individual operating facilities; and

WHEREAS, it is believed that the EPA's Equipment Replacement Provision should remain in full force and effect, providing the regulated community with the clarity and objective standards needed to conduct business in an appropriate manner; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Department of Natural Resources is currently working to adopt new state rules that will comply with the New Sources Review Program under the Federal Clean Air Act on an expedited basis; and

WHEREAS, the availability of state rules that are compliant with the Federal Clean Air Act is vital to the retention and creation of industrial jobs in Missouri; and

NOW, THEREFORE IT BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby urge the validation of the rules as promulgated by the EPA known as the Equipment Replacement Provision set forth in 68 C.F.R. Section 61,248-61,280, so as to provide necessary clarity to the regulated community as to what constitutes routine maintenance and modification; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives commits to join the Motion to Intervene in the lawsuit styled State of New York, et al v. U.S. EPA, No. 03-01380 (D.D.C., 2003), in support of the EPA rule.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

(Whatever the agenda of our work today, LIFE is a good focus for this morning's invocation)

Let us pray, first, by listening to a verse from the Hebrew Scriptures, the BOOK OF GENESIS.

“The Lord God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life and so man became a living being.”
Genesis 2:7

Holy God, Father Eternal, our Creator, however we interpret the scriptures, we who believe in You learn from this verse that You are the Creator of life.

We thank You for our own life. It is our most precious possession. In our families many of us are entrusted with care for the very lives of others. We have accepted this responsibility and are thankful for the love and fulfillment we receive in supporting, nurturing and caring for the very lives of our loved ones.

In our work here, we accept a similar responsibility of supporting and caring for the lives of others. In our family and our work, may our faith cause us to remember that You, the Creator of life, are the Lord of life.

May we and other leaders in our State and across our Nation make plans, develop legislation, and so govern that we always respect You alone as God and as Lord of Life.

You are our God forever and ever. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

BILLS

Introduced - Manner of Setting Forth
New and Old Material

Rule 37. (a) When. Bills may be introduced only on the report of a committee or by any member of the House, in the regular order of business. No member shall file a bill after the constitutional deadline for filing bills.

(b) Manner of Printing. Any bill shall have the matter which is being repealed from current law enclosed in bold-faced brackets and the matter which is being added to the law underscored when typewritten and in bold-faced type when printed. A footnote shall be annexed to the first page of each bill which contains material enclosed in bold-faced brackets to the following effect:

"Explanation - Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language." Where a section is completely rewritten, the existing section shall be set forth in small type in bold-faced brackets in a note following the new section but the changes need not be distinguished. Any bill or substitute thereof which does not comply with this rule shall not be placed upon the calendar.

[(c) Number of Copies. Each bill shall be submitted in triplicate.]

Number Of Copies Printed

Rule 38. The Chief Clerk shall print such number of copies of all House Bills and House Joint Resolutions as he/she shall deem appropriate[; provided however, it shall never be less than 500].

Motion To Place On Calendar

Rule 40. If any bill is reported from committee with the recommendation that it "do not pass" it shall not go on the calendar of the House unless ordered by a constitutional majority. At the same time the bill is reported to the House, the committee chair shall notify the [author] sponsor or handler of the bill that such report is being made. A motion to have a bill placed upon the calendar must be made within three legislative days after the bill is reported and when the sponsor of the bill is present or the motion is made by a member upon the sponsor's written request. If no such action is taken within said time, the bill shall lie on the table.

Consent Calendar

Rule 44. (a) Which Bills May Be Placed on the Consent Calendar. Each committee, after a favorable vote on a bill, may further determine by a second and affirmative vote of every member present whether or not such bill is of a noncontroversial nature. Any bill which increases net expenditures of the state, reduces net revenue of the state, or contains penalty provisions, shall not be considered by the committee for consent; provided however, any bill which specifically authorizes an easement or right-of-way involving state property may be considered by the committee for placement on the Consent Calendar.

(b) Procedure on House Bills. If the committee shall so determine, the committee report shall include a request that a bill be placed on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection". Any bill so reported shall automatically be placed on that calendar and after said bill has remained on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection" for five legislative days, it shall be ordered perfected and advanced to the "House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage" without further action of the House, unless five members, with at least two from each political party, have filed written objection with the Chief Clerk. If such objections are filed, the bill shall be placed on the House Bills to be Perfected and Printed Calendar. An objection made by five members under this rule cannot be rescinded.

(c) Senate Bills - Consent. When the Senate passes a bill by its procedure for consent bills, such bill shall be considered for treatment as a consent bill by the House committee without further request; provided however, that the same committee procedures, votes and requirements for House Bills being considered for consent shall be applied to Senate Bills being considered for consent. A Senate Bill may be considered by the committee for Consent even if it was not a Consent Bill in the Senate.

(d) Procedure on Senate Bills. Senate Bills passed out of the House committee with the request that the bill be placed on the Senate Bills for Third Reading and Final Passage - Consent Calendar are subject to the five member objection provision of this rule.

(e) Deadline for [Taking up] Referring Senate Consent Bills to Committee. No Senate consent bills [may be taken up after 6:00 p.m.] shall be referred to committee after the close of the legislative day on the first Thursday [following the third Monday] in April.

(f) Amendments. House bills may be considered for consent after they are amended in committee but may not be amended on the floor of the House.

Senate consent bills may be amended in committee but not on the floor of the House unless the Senate Rules allow amendment of House consent bills on the floor of the Senate in which case Senate consent bills may be amended on the floor of the House. House committee amendments and House committee substitutes to Senate consent bills shall be voted on by the House before the vote to Third Read and Pass.

AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTES

Rule 45. (a) In Writing. Proposed amendments must be reduced to writing. Every amendment shall be read in its entirety by the clerk unless it has been distributed in advance, the amendment's sponsor requests waiver of the reading, and there is no objection to the request. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed in advance if, before it is offered, it has been placed on the members' desks in paper form. Every amendment that exceeds two pages in length must be distributed in advance unless the amendment's sponsor requests waiver of the distribution, and there is no objection to the request. The sponsor of an amendment that has been distributed may make technical corrections at the time the amendment is offered or under consideration. Any technical corrections shall be read in full by the clerk. Technical corrections shall be subject to a point of order that they are not truly technical in nature.

(b) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it shall also be in order to offer a further amendment by way of a substitute, to which one amendment may be offered. When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute. Any proposed amendment in the third degree shall be out of order. Any bill or amendment may be withdrawn by the sponsor before amendment or decision thereon. Once a bill has been amended, it shall be in the possession of the House.

(c) House Substitutes and Committee Substitutes Treated as Original. A House committee substitute and any House substitute shall be considered as an original bill for purposes of amendment.

(d) House Substitute. A House substitute must be distributed to the members at least one legislative day prior to its consideration by the House. A House amendment which, in the opinion of the Speaker, is in reality a House substitute, must be distributed in the same manner as a House substitute.

(e) One House Substitute at a Time. Only one House substitute shall be in order at one time; provided however, that if a member has previously distributed a different House substitute, an explanation of the alternative House substitute shall not be subject to a point of order that such explanation is not germane to the pending House substitute then under consideration.

(f) When Federal Mandate Bills can be Amended. Amendments to House and Senate bills-Federal Mandate are permitted only within the scope of the federal mandate. Perfecting amendments are permitted to make technical amendments.

(g) Appropriations Bills. 1. No amendment to the first 12 appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be in order if it increases the total amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills as reported from the Committee on Budget. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills shall be required to contain an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the same bill or shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in any other of the twelve bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted.

2. If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

3. The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase in the same amendment or a paired amendment creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

4. For the perfection of the first 12 House appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

5. No House Committee Substitute or House Substitute of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be adopted until all amendments to the first 12 House appropriations bills or substitute have been disposed of.

BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Ayes and Noes Taken

Rule 49. When a bill shall have passed the House and been returned from the Senate with amendments, said amendments may be concurred in collectively[, or amended,] by a constitutional majority, unless objection be made, in which case the vote shall be taken severally, and no amendment or amendments shall be concurred in by the House except by a constitutional majority and the names of those voting for and against recorded upon the Journal of the House.

Motion for [Final] Passage

Rule 53. When the Chief Clerk presents a bill as truly perfected and printed, it shall go upon the calendar to be agreed to and passed. When the bill is taken up in its order, the question shall then be: "Shall the bill be third read and passed?" It shall require a constitutional majority to sustain the question.

Division of Questions

Rule 74. Any member may have, as a personal right, a division of the question where the sense will admit of it. When the question having been divided is a Senate Bill for Third Reading, each part of the bill shall be voted upon separately and a subsequent separate vote shall be taken on the entire bill. When a bill is divided for consideration, the title and enacting clause shall be considered a separate part and shall, unless otherwise amended, be technically changed to reflect any amendments or deletions to the bill. When a question has been divided, Rule 83 shall apply to all parts collectively as though no division had occurred.

Ascending the Dais

Rule 96. No person shall ascend to the Dais without first being recognized to do so by the Speaker. The Speaker may invite any person to ascend the dais.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Creator of all things, it is written, "In times of difficulty, may the Lord respond to your cry, may the Lord keep you safe from harm." You Lord, indeed, are a very present help in times of difficulty.

May You grant our heart's desire and fulfill our plans. May You send help from Your heavenly abode and strengthen us in this hour. May we know Your great peace.

O Lord, we are all too aware of our own human weaknesses when our own doings, callings, efforts, or sincere goals are called into question. Help us to overcome these weaknesses.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all.

In Your Son's name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ELEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray.

“Frost and Chill, bless the Lord.
Ice and snow, bless the Lord.”
(Daniel 3:69-70)

Almighty God, the disagreeable weather, which You allow, speaks to us of the many things we cannot control.

We use Your gifts of ingenuity and human creation to work with the powerful forces of nature.

Through this dimension of our lives You remind us of the necessity to work with other forces and even people in our lives who are beyond our control.

By Your grace, may we use the ingenuity and the wisdom gained from experience to work with those who place in our path opposition as forceful as that of the weather outside.

O Lord our God, bless our efforts to work with all others so that our convictions of truth and justice and necessity might contribute to the maximum in creating a Spring thaw that increases the common good of all our people.

We pray to You who are our God forever and ever. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWELFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, in Your Word, You have said, "I have directed you in the way of wisdom, I have led you in upright places." So we take hold of Your instruction, guarding it in our hearts, for it is our life.

May our heart's purpose remain clear, our eyes fixed on what is true, honorable, and right and may we not mistake excitement for growth or sentimental feelings for true commitment to our vocation.

So, with Your help, we enter this day with no doubt of our abilities, no fear of making decisions that affect us all, and with patient expectation of the appropriate outcome.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

In Your Son's name we pray. Amen.

The doorkeeper announced the approach of Director Hungerbeeler, who was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF TRANSPORTATION ADDRESS

Henry Hungerbeeler

Governor Holden, Lieutenant Governor Maxwell, Speaker Hanaway, President Pro Tem Kinder, Distinguished State Officials, Chief Justice White, Honored Members of the Missouri Supreme Court, Members of the 92nd General Assembly, Members of the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission, MoDOT Employees and Citizens of Missouri:

It is my great honor to stand before you today on this historic occasion. Searching as far back as House and Senate journals have been printed, which is about 70 years, we have been able to identify no other director of a state agency given the humbling opportunity to address a joint session of the Missouri General Assembly.

I thank you for allowing me to come before this esteemed body and address the important issue of our transportation system.

While most people think of MoDOT as dealing primarily with roads and bridges, we are a full-service department of transportation, and must address our responsibilities to all of our citizens. Therefore, we deal with public transportation, aviation, port development, and both freight and passenger railway service.

And in each of those areas and others for which we are responsible, we see the need for more resources to provide the mobility our citizens need.

As we work together to address our transportation challenges, we should keep three broad principles in mind:
- Soundness, Safety and Support.

Soundness

The soundness of your transportation system has been called into question, as has the soundness of your department of transportation.

Distinguished ladies and gentleman, the state of Missouri's transportation system is sound, but not as sound as it needs to be.

Many of our highways are in poor condition...too narrow, or too hilly, or too curving, or have no shoulders, and for safety and economic development we need to make more highways four lanes.

At the same time, bridges that are one step away from being closed, what we call condition three bridges, are becoming unusable faster than we can get money to replace them.

Many citizens sit in long lines during rush hour traffic, wasting both time and money.

Court mandated low flows on our rivers are impacting the movement of water-borne commerce, causing more trucks on highways and a higher transportation cost for farmers.

MoDOT administers state and federal funds for 37 public transportation agencies and 200 specialized programs for the elderly and disabled, but we have a significant need to offer more public transportation options in our large cities and rural areas alike.

Unfortunately, those transportation areas funded from state general revenue have been cut 37 percent since 2002. The result is more than 1.8 million fewer transit trips and the elimination of our port improvement program. The truth is Missouri has not provided the funding necessary to adequately address most of these other modal needs or the larger dollar requirements to repair and rehabilitate highways and bridges while simultaneously constructing much-needed highway projects for economic development and congestion relief.

Our funding situation is dramatically demonstrated by the fact that 25 years ago, 17 percent of Missouri's state budget went to transportation. Now only 7.5 percent of state spending goes toward vital improvements to our highways, bridges, transit services, and other modes of transportation.

Interestingly, if our transportation budget had grown at the same rate as the rest of state government, our system today would be in outstanding condition, and long ago we would have completed projects that people are still waiting for us to schedule.

Though I believe inadequate funding is our biggest problem, I do not come before you today with a specific funding proposal. I am here to present the facts about transportation in Missouri so that state elected officials, working in conjunction with MoDOT and the citizens of this great state, can decide how best to address our inadequate transportation system.

This body has already done much to address the problem, passing legislation dealing with accountability, MoDOT leadership, commission governance, and other issues. MoDOT and the Commission have also made changes.

The Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission has provided a better balance in our spending by shifting more adequate funding to taking better care of the existing system. A year ago the commission changed the funding allocation method to a more objective process that allocates funds to various areas of the state and various categories of spending based on such objective factors as pavement condition, vehicle miles traveled, population, employment, etc.

Changing our method of allocating funds was a wise decision. Nevertheless, we are keenly aware that the state of our transportation system is still not as sound as it needs to be.

The state of your Department of Transportation, however, is sound...not perfect by any means...but good.

An independent Blue Ribbon Panel appointed by the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission recently recommended that a clear message must be sent indicating, "A new day has dawned at MoDOT." I believe that the new day is well on its way.

Although the department had problems with financial estimates in the past, MoDOT has now established a solid record of sound fiscal practices.

We have reduced staff by approximately 300 people over the last three years. Less than three percent of our budget goes toward administrative costs while we spend 73 percent on construction including building new highways and taking better care of existing roadways. Please note that if our budget were more adequate, that percentage for administrative costs would be even lower, and the percentage spent on construction would be even higher.

We have saved $53 million over the last three years by streamlining our operations and we expect to save another $21 million this year. We also saved millions last year by coming within a fraction of a percent on our highway construction cost estimates. Those savings were directed back into building and maintaining highways.

Part of our efficiency comes from our constitutional form of governance...the bipartisan watchdog group of citizens who oversee us. As you know, the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission is made up of unpaid citizen volunteers who are among the leading members of their communities. Commissioners are appointed by the Governor with approval of the Senate and they conduct business in full view of taxpayers.

This system of transportation oversight and decision-making by members of the public has served the people of Missouri well for more than 80 years by limiting political influence and parochialism in transportation decision-making, and it has become more open to public involvement in recent years than ever before in our history. We should keep the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission in its current form.

Members of the Commission are here today and will be available in the rotunda following this speech to answer your questions. I applaud their unselfish service to this state and their commitment to providing all Missourians with better transportation options.

MoDOT is scrupulously held accountable through numerous audits each year. The State Auditor reviews our operations on an ongoing basis, as do our internal auditors. Additionally, an independent firm audits us annually. In 2003, they gave MoDOT their highest rating for the fourth straight year and said our financial practices are "as good as it gets."

At the same time, MoDOT employs an inspector general to root out fraud, waste, and abuse and objectively investigate grievances independent of management. An external inspector general position was created by the state legislature last year, and we look forward to working closely with that person. Additionally, we are accountable to the Senate and House Transportation Committees and the Joint Committee on Transportation Oversight. Plus, the Senate Appropriations Committee and House Budget Committee review MoDOT each year.

Most importantly, we are, and want to be, accountable to the people of Missouri. Whether at the ballot box, on the phone, at their computers or attending one of the hundreds of public meetings we hold each year, the citizens of this state have direct input into what we do. We have pledged to listen to them and we are fulfilling that pledge.

We have embarked on a new project planning process that will permit even more public involvement in transportation decisions than ever before. No longer will MoDOT alone make project decisions and inform citizens after the fact. We are committed to having local representatives at the table from the beginning to the end.

MoDOT's construction and maintenance practices are also sound.

In 2003, we completed 268 construction projects, all of which, taken together, were within two percent of cost estimates. This record is part of a four-year trend during which your department of transportation completed projects at a cost that came within one-third of one percent of the estimated cost on a program that totaled more than $2 billion.

In other words, for the last four fiscal years, we have told you in advance what we were going to do...and we have done it.

Others have confirmed the soundness of our construction practices. The Federal Highway Administration has labeled MoDOT as one of the best transportation agencies among all 50 states at delivering promised highway and bridge improvements at the promised price to taxpayers.

Citizens tell us good visibility on highways is very important to them. They especially want to see highway stripes. We listened, and took action. In 2003, we quietly promised to paint centerline stripes on all roads, and paint edge lines on more roads. We delivered on that promise by putting down 82,000 miles of stripes last year. That's an increase of 13,000 miles.

Our improvements, however, are not limited to highways. In the last 18 months, MoDOT improved aviation safety by installing nine Automated Weather Observation Systems to provide accurate and real time weather information to pilots. Four more are currently under construction.

Our state aviation improvement program is funded through dedicated aviation fuel tax revenue, which is down over 25 percent since 9-11. Despite the funding decrease, MoDOT was able to install additional navigational aids or make runway pavement improvements at nine Missouri airports.

That is a sound record of significant accomplishment, and much of it is in direct response to concerns citizens have expressed to us.

In addition, MoDOT is sound in its commitment to inclusiveness.

MoDOT has been cited as a leader in state government regarding the award of contracts to Minority- and Women-owned businesses. Between 1996 and 2002, the department awarded nearly half a billion dollars in contracts to disadvantaged business enterprises. In 2002, MoDOT contracts with these businesses amounted to approximately 73 million dollars, almost twice as much as in 1996. We are committed to doing even better.

At the same time, we are aggressively leading efforts to increase the number of minorities, females and underemployed and low-income individuals entering the construction industry on which this department is so heavily dependent. We are extremely proud of our active involvement in the St. Louis Construction Prep Center that is preparing members of these groups to succeed in the construction field through training for the work place and for life. Graduates of the center are actively sought out by the construction industry due to the excellent training it provides.

I am honored to have a graduate of the center, Mr. Tyrone Gibbs, here today. With Mr. Gibbs' permission, let me tell you a little bit about him. Mr. Gibbs grew up in three different foster homes and three different boys' homes. He spent 12 years on the streets, which resulted in his being incarcerated on three different occasions. Just one week after his last stint in the state penitentiary, Mr. Gibbs got the news that would change his life. He was accepted to the Construction Prep Center.

Second only to his wife, Barbara, Mr. Gibbs credits the Construction Prep Center with keeping him from continuing down the wrong path in life. Mr. Gibbs' "No Day Off, No Lay Off" attitude allowed him to work 40 hours per week at the center and another 50 hours supporting his family. It also allowed him to advance quickly.

He is now a crew chief - one of only three African-American foremen out of hundreds of carpenters where he works. He hopes to have his own construction company some day. Mr. Gibbs is what the Construction Prep Center is all about. Tyrone and Barbara Gibbs... please stand up and get the recognition you both deserve.

The state of your MoDOT is sound and that is due primarily to one thing - our outstanding workforce. I was proud to serve my country in the United States Air Force for more than 30 years. I can say unequivocally, however, that I have never had the honor to serve with a harder-working, more dedicated group of people than I have at MoDOT.

Throughout our great state, your friends, family and neighbors who work for MoDOT get up early everyday proudly striving for a better, safer transportation system for all Missourians. They toil with limited resources, yet they deliver on the promises we have made to taxpayers.

I am proud to work with “everyday heroes” at MoDOT, some of whom put their lives on the line everyday.

Bill Pappademos works for MoDOT’s Motorist Assist service in St. Louis, a service that cost effectively helps to reduce congestion. On December 8 of last year, Bill looked in his rearview mirror and noticed a vehicle rolling over several times behind him. He carefully stopped and backed up and discovered that the driver, an off-duty police officer, had been thrown from his car and was lying in one of the traffic lanes. Bill placed himself between the seriously injured officer and on coming traffic to protect him until emergency responders could arrive.

When a record number of tornadoes ripped through southwest Missouri in 2003, our employees reacted without hesitation. Maintenance crews from Bolivar in our District 8 region gathered quickly and headed to Stockton, which is in District 7, the night of May 4 following one of the most devastating tornadoes our state has ever experienced. They pulled trees and debris out of the road to allow emergency crews to access victims and to allow motorists to use our highways safely.

We also responded to the human needs of our neighbors during this challenging time. Garland DeWitt, a MoDOT maintenance specialist in Ozark, was working north of Cleaver when he discovered a series of personal items. He recovered family photos, cups from a silver tea set and clothing items for a family who lost a loved one and their home in the storm. This was a priceless discovery for that family.

Heroes also work in the offices of MoDOT. Rebecca Jackson, a MoDOT General Services Manager here in Jefferson City, led efforts to develop a new purchasing method for the department. Her innovative and diligent efforts have saved time and countless taxpayer dollars. This great achievement recently earned her the Distinguished Service Award from the Missouri Association of Public Purchasing.

Bill, Garland and Rebecca are here today. I would like to ask them to stand.

I am so proud to be associated with folks like Bill, Garland and Rebecca. They are typical of everyday heroes who work throughout the Missouri Department of Transportation. Whether they are helping a customer on the phone, clearing snow from our highways, finding ways to save money or risking their life for an injured motorist, MoDOT employees consistently answer the call of duty. Their commitment is sound.

There is one final “everyday hero” I personally could not live without and want you to meet... the “first lady” in my life... my lovely wife, Anne. Her commitment is sound.

Tragically, 68 MoDOT employees have given their lives since 1945 fulfilling their call to duty. Our most recent loss was just a few months ago. On September 30, 2003, Karla Baublitz, a maintenance worker, was repairing mowing equipment several feet from a roadway in Joplin when a driver fell asleep, ran off the road and struck her.

Karla was hard working and well liked by her colleagues. She was dedicated to her MoDOT family, but she couldn’t wait to get home to her own family, which included three children.

MoDOT employees have difficult, sometimes dangerous, jobs and face many challenges. Yet they persevere together in cooperation with the customers they serve, local citizens and our elected officials. I have started to see the positive effects of their determination.

In every county of this state, the good work of MoDOT professionals is turning the tide of public opinion.

Last year, MoDOT officials again embarked on a listening tour of Missouri. We visited cities and towns throughout this beautiful state and heard a familiar refrain, “we love our local MoDOT”. The praise for our district employees and the district engineers who lead them was profuse. And they frequently helped make the point that all of us in MoDOT are on the same team. Those district engineers are here today. You know them and they are at your service. They, too, will be available in the rotunda to answer questions about transportation in their areas.

As we traveled the state late last year, people said that the MoDOT they know is open to their inquiries and responsive to their concerns. While members of the public don't always get the answers they want, they do get answers in a timely and courteous way.

They also get results. MoDOT employees are dedicated to finding ways to say "yes" more often and to ending the perception that we automatically say "no". While we sometimes have a professional responsibility to say "no", we are working very hard on saying "yes".

Ladies and gentlemen, we are your neighborhood MoDOT. We care about the safety of the people who use our state highways. We care about the elderly and disabled who rely on the transit services we administer. And we care about providing reliable options in all modes of transportation.

We realize, however, that we are not perfect and we must constantly strive to improve the way we do business and build credibility with the public. With this thought always at the forefront of our minds, we are taking steps to further improve our effectiveness as an organization.

We are seeking to measure our progress toward goals such as reducing injury and fatal crash rates; increasing the number of highways in good or better condition; reducing the percentage of deficient bridges; alleviating congestion in St. Louis and Kansas City; and avoiding depreciation in the value of our highway system.

We are also measuring the percentage of highway and bridge construction commitments we are meeting within budget, on time and as promised in our 5-year plan. We have high standards in these areas and even higher expectations for meeting our commitments.

All of the goals I have outlined are imperative to rebuilding confidence in MoDOT. We must be diligent in tracking our progress toward them and ultimately achieving them. That will be a sound investment in our future.

Safety

Earlier I mentioned three broad areas for discussion today - soundness, safety and support. Though I've spoken of "soundness" first, safety is the foundation principle we seek in every department activity. It is MoDOT's number one objective. We are constantly exploring ways to make our highways and other transportation services safer for everyone. We have instituted better work zone guidelines to limit the number of crashes in highway construction areas. We emphasize internal safety practices to keep our employees and customers safe. And now we, with safety partners such as the Highway Patrol and many others, are developing Missouri's first Comprehensive Highway Safety Plan.

Too many people are dying on Missouri's roads. Over the past three years we have lost 3,463 Missourians to traffic accidents. That averages out to 1,154 per year. If we lost that many people in airplane crashes, it would be totally unacceptable. We need that same level of concern regarding the unacceptable number of motorists who don't make it to their destinations safely.

Working with our transportation partners, we will seek to channel the heartache of past traffic accidents into a safety plan that prevents pain and tears in the future. Our goal is to reduce the number of fatalities on our roads significantly by the end of 2008. Failing to meet this objective is not an option. We can do it together. It's a goal we can and must reach!

In order to reduce roadway deaths appreciably each year, we will need the help of our friends in highway safety. Cooperation is vital to achieving our goal of saving more motorists' lives.

By this summer, Missouri will have a Comprehensive Highway Safety Plan that focuses on the four "Es" - Engineering, Enforcement, Education, and Emergency services. The plan will outline ways to engineer safer roads, to better enforce vital traffic laws, to educate the public about how they can operate vehicles more safely, and to improve the emergency services that respond to traffic crashes.

The lives of those who use our highways are too precious to not act. Safety must be a priority and your support is essential to achieving our safety goals.

Support

Your MoDOT is poised to make great strides toward improving the soundness and safety of the transportation system of this state, but we need the support of the Governor, statewide officials, the General Assembly and every citizen of Missouri to move toward better highways, bridges and public transportation options.

We need your support to end the diversion of fuel tax funds to purposes other than building and maintaining state highways and bridges, and enforcing the laws relating to them. The people of Missouri pay fuel taxes as well as other taxes, licensing charges and fees with the expectation that their hard-earned money is going toward highway improvements and traffic enforcement, and that's what the public wants the money to go for.

We understand the fiscal constraints the state is in, but reducing diversions is a course we must all pursue.

It will take an act of this state legislature and perhaps a statewide vote of the people of Missouri to end some of these diversions, but I repeat...it is a course we must pursue. The vital functions of other state agencies should be funded through sources outside of transportation dollars. Missourians expect highway revenues to go toward improving our highway system and that is where they should be used.

Another initiative we could take to address our extensive highway needs is utilizing toll roads to a limited extent. This too would require action by the General Assembly and statewide voter approval.

Many people fear that giving MoDOT the authority to use tolls will mean a tollbooth on every street corner. I can assure you that will not happen. In actuality, it would be feasible to place tolls on only a few major projects in Missouri. Legislation already filed lists only six specific projects. Those projects are certainly subject to debate. They have not yet been approved by anyone. But in every case, they are projects that are not currently funded and may never exist without some additional form of substantial revenue.

Tolling should be a tool in Missouri's transportation toolbox. It will not solve our funding problems, but it will be another step toward meeting our highway needs.

Tolling could help us provide sounder, safer highways, but highway safety is also the responsibility of each of us who set foot in a motor vehicle. Therefore, it is imperative that we enact legislation to encourage safer conduct when driving or when a passenger in a vehicle on our state's roads. The unsafe conduct of a few imposes enormous suffering and costs on the rest of us.

Two safety-related issues, banning open containers of alcohol in vehicles and passing and enforcing a primary seat belt law, will save lives and money and won't cost us a cent. Not only does it make sense to ban open containers from vehicles, but also it would end the mandatory diversion of three percent of our federal highway construction funds to other purposes.

We must also pass a primary seat belt law. That means enacting a measure allowing law enforcement officers to pull people over and ticket them solely for not wearing a safety belt. The United States Department of Transportation estimates that if seat belt usage were to increase from 75 percent to 90 percent, 4,000 lives would be saved nationally each year. No state has ever approached that usage level, however, without a primary seat belt law. One loss of life is too high a price to pay. We must act and give new meaning to the phrase "click it or ticket."

There is a clear humanitarian incentive to save lives through a primary safety belt law. At the same time, an additional financial incentive may come from the federal government. Every version of the federal transportation reauthorization bill currently being considered in Congress recognizes the enormous costs to society of traffic crashes, and therefore contains financial incentives for enacting primary safety belt laws. Missouri could miss out on millions of additional dollars for our highways, if we do not act.

MoDOT has been working closely with Missouri's congressional delegation for more than a year to ensure that our state's share of federal transportation funds increases during the reauthorization process underway. We are encouraged by the funding levels in federal legislation being discussed that could hold the promise of about $233 million more per year for transportation in Missouri over the next six years.

All funds received from the federal government for highway purposes, however, must be matched at a 20 percent rate with state funds. It is imperative that we make sure we have enough state funding to avoid losing a dollar of federal funds. Additional state revenue will have to be identified.

We are aware of the severe funds shortage in state government, but it is time to make constructive plans for the critical transportation needs of this state. We cannot leave our transportation system in worse shape than we found it and pass our problems on to our children and grandchildren. We must act now to provide for safer, smoother highways, better bridges and expanded public transportation options.

We in MoDOT will soon be coming to the citizens of Missouri with pleas to help us update the vision for transportation that all of us should share. As we update our long-range transportation plan, we must be guided by the needs that citizens feel and the opportunities our state's geographic location present to us.

As most of you know, my days with MoDOT are coming to a close. When I began this job, I was a newcomer to Missouri. Over the past five years, this great state has become my home and many of you have become my friends. I have come to believe certain things very passionately.

I believe that the employees of MoDOT are well-meaning, committed public servants and they want nothing more than to provide Missourians with the world-class transportation system they deserve.

I believe that our state and federal elected officials are dedicated to improving the lives of all Missourians and will not rest until steps are taken to dramatically improve transportation in this state.

And I believe in the people of this great state. I have quoted several numbers regarding the needs of our transportation system and various funding facts. Transportation, however, is not about numbers. It is about people.

It is about the mothers and fathers who drive to work each morning and the sons and daughters who count on them to return home safely every evening. It is about grandparents who rely on OATS buses to get to the grocery store and to the health care services they need. It is about children on school buses, walking on sidewalks or riding their bikes. It is about safety, jobs, commerce, security, recreation and all the other factors that contribute to a high quality of life.

These reasons are why I believe so strongly that we must improve our transportation system for all Missourians. And the people of this state are why I believe we can do it. Missourians personify the show-me spirit of our state and, when it comes to transportation, they have said, "If you don't show us, we will show you."

The citizens of Kirksville overwhelmingly voted to increase their local taxes to help pay for a four-lane highway that will be completed in 2005. Hollister, a town of 2,600 people, is contributing $6.5 million to help us build an interchange. High school students in Canton lost friends in traffic accidents and resolved to do all they could to keep it from happening to someone else. Concerned citizens in O'Fallon, Poplar Bluff, St. Roberts, Washington, Hannibal, Lebanon, Springfield and countless other communities are stepping forward to say, "How can we help build the highway projects that we so desperately need?"

It is this can-do attitude that makes me believe in the people of Missouri. And I believe that, if we all work together, then we will truly witness a new day dawning on Missouri's transportation horizon. Let's make it happen in this capitol, at the ballot box and on every highway and byway of this great state. The soundness of our transportation system and the safety of our citizens depend on the support we give each other.

Thank you and may God bless your travels.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord God, Almighty Father, as we begin this morning's session, we recall Your promise to be present to us when we call upon You.

We know that we are blessed with Your nearness and that we are called together to work for the people. We pray that You will help us respond generously to this opportunity to serve You by serving them.

Inspire us with Your Spirit of wisdom. Plant the seeds of Your vision in our hearts and minds. Give us humor and give us humility in our working with one another, so that we may experience the fulfillment of helping those who have not the wherewithal to help themselves and of improving the quality of life for all.

Holy Lord, after this day's work we will return to the warmth of our homes and the love of our families. Protect those who will NOT, especially our men and women in the armed forces. Help them defend the lives of the innocent and lay the foundations of true peace. Bring them safely back to us and to the warmth and love of their homes.

We pray to You who are our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Vince Markovitz, Hanna Reese, Cy Rautman and China Collins.

The Journal of the twelfth day was approved as corrected.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Gracious, Heavenly Father, our Shield and Comforter, Your Word declares, "All the utterances of my mouth are in righteousness, there is nothing crooked or perverted in them." May these words guide us throughout the coming days, weeks and months.

May You, Who inspire us to endure, give us constant encouragement and a mind united for the common good of the state.

May You, the God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace as we seek to serve.

May You keep us sound in spirit, mind and body as we participate in the challenges of our daily duties.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Daniel Smith.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Dethrow in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord our God, we thank You for the blessing of a society where every vote counts.

We give thanks for the thousands of votes in the past elections that placed us in public office. We pray for the wisdom and the courage today to participate in the political life of the State of Missouri in ways that are always in harmony with Your Holy will.

We pray for the people, the citizens of our state. Give them the vision that every voice matters in the public forum, and that every vote has meaning. Inspire them on this voting Tuesday to prove themselves faithful citizens by going to the polls to vote. In this simple act, help them experience their personal dignity, their individual power, and the fulfillment of their duty before all the people and even before their God.

When the voting is over, give us the humility to discern the meaning of the results. May those results help us to continue our work in this House of Representatives in harmony with Your will.

We pray to You, who are our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kate Portwood.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Angst in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, in Your Word, You have said, "Where there is no guidance the people fall, but in the abundance of counselors there is victory." So we fall not, for we seek much counsel from You.

May You give us, by Your grace, unending encouragement and unfailing hope. May You inspire us with courage and confidence in every good thing we say or do.

Where there is stress and anxiety, we ask for peace and rest. We may make our plans, but we ask You to direct our hearts.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

In Your Son's name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Malcom Nolan Fares.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Ruestman in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

(By February 5th, the average American wage earner has earned enough to pay his/her food bill for the entire year of 2004.)

God, our Father, we marvel at the abundant resources of our Nation for food production. We marvel even more at the ingenuity, the talent, and the hard work of those who work in agriculture and provide such an abundance of food at such affordable cost. We feel secure and protected as we live in a state that is so much a part of food production in our land.

Guide our vision to every part of our nation and the entire world where people are hungry, and give us the ability to feed them.

Be with us throughout all our work of this day.

We pray for the safety of all who travel the highways and the airways during the volatile weather of this day. And we pray for all who maintain our highways and airports.

We pray for our men and women in the armed forces. May their worthy missions be accomplished. And may they soon return safely home.

We pray to You, who are our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixteenth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, Monday, February 9, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Gracious, Heavenly Father, Your Word declares, "People can get many good things by the words they say. The work of their hands also gives them many benefits." So may the words of our mouth and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable unto You this day. May the work of our hands reap great benefits for this state.

Teach us Your ways that we may live according to Your truth! Grant us pure motives, that we may honor You.

Teach us to number our days and recognize how few they are; help us to spend them, as we should.

May Your blessings be with us. Grant us success in all we do!

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Dorothy Rose Caisley, Anne Shields, Caroline Doerhoff, Molly Grifford and Claire Bettale.

The Journal of the seventeenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed HCR 5.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 25.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 25

WHEREAS, the Government Pension Offset (GPO) and Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) of the federal Social Security Act penalize people who have dedicated their lives to public service by taking away benefits they have earned; and

WHEREAS, nine out of ten public employees affected by the GPO lose their entire spousal benefit, even though their spouse paid Social Security taxes for many years; and

WHEREAS, the WEP causes hard-working people to lose up to sixty percent of the benefits they earned themselves; and

WHEREAS, many workers rely on misleading Social Security Administration statements that fail to take into account the GPO and WEP when projecting benefits; and

WHEREAS, the impact of the GPO and WEP is not just felt in those states in which public employees, including educators, are not covered by Social Security, because people move from state to state and affected individuals are everywhere; and

WHEREAS, the GPO and WEP apply to all vested members of the Public School Retirement System of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the number of people affected across the country is growing every day as more and more people reach retirement age; and

WHEREAS, some 300,000 individuals lose an average of $3,600 a year due to the GPO; and

WHEREAS, this amount can make the difference between self-sufficiency and poverty; and

WHEREAS, these people have less money to spend in their local economy and sometimes have to turn to expensive government programs like food stamps to make ends meet; and

WHEREAS, during a national teacher shortage, the GPO and WEP discourage people from entering and staying in the teaching profession, since doing so will mean a loss of earned Social Security benefits; and

WHEREAS, the GPO and WEP are also causing current educators to leave the profession and students to choose courses of study other than education; and

WHEREAS, non-Social Security states are finding it increasingly difficult to attract quality educators as more people learn about the GPO and WEP; and

WHEREAS, the nation should respect, not penalize, public service; and

WHEREAS, the GPO and WEP are established in federal law and repeal of the GPO and WEP can only be enacted by the United States Congress:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the Congress of the United States to immediately repeal the Government Pension Offset and Windfall Elimination Provision of the Social Security Act; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SS SCR 26, entitled:

SENATE SUBSTITUTE
FOR

Relating to the Forestry Utilization Committee.

WHEREAS, the forestry industry is a vital industry to Missouri, representing over fourteen million acres of Missouri timberland, which ranks our state seventh out of the twenty northeastern timber states, supports the bulk of Missouri recreation and tourism, directly provides thousands of jobs and supports tens of thousands of jobs where forest land and products are a vital component, directly generates three billion dollars of revenue, and indirectly supports the generation of many more billions of dollars in revenue; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly wishes to maintain and enhance the positive economic contribution of this industry while making every attempt to minimize environmental harm and other negative aspects of the industry; and

WHEREAS, the industries' current practice of harvesting sixty percent of the tree, and its predominant production of low value-added products, limits the potential economic contribution to industry participants and to the state; and

WHEREAS, there exists a need for a study of the potential for increased industrial strength and rural economic gains to be realized by forestry adopting modern industrial business models and value-added techniques:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby authorize the creation of a "Forestry Utilization Committee", which shall review and evaluate both the industrial and economic impact of forestry utilization and make recommendations on further action or legislative remedies, if any, to be taken as necessary; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such committee shall be composed of twenty-three members, one member to be a member of the Missouri Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate, one member to be a member of the Missouri House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, two county commissioners appointed by the Missouri Association of Counties, two forest landowners representing small forestry holdings with owners of less than two hundred acres of timber and two representatives of large forestry holdings with greater than two hundred acres of timber, both to be appointed by the Missouri Farm Bureau, a representative from the

Each member of the committee shall serve until December 31, 2005. A chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary shall be elected by the membership of the committee to conduct the business of the committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee may conduct its business by various means but shall meet no less than twice each year as a full committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all state agencies shall cooperate with the committee in carrying out its duties, including allowing access to closed records, provided that the committee shall not disclose any identifying information contained in such records closed pursuant to statute or general order, and any such information in the custody of the committee shall not be discoverable to the same extent as when in the custody of the parent agency; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all members shall serve without compensation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Office of Administration shall provide minimal funding, administrative support, and staff for the effective operation of the committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee shall study problems and solutions, collect information, and provide recommendations in a report to the General Assembly before July 30, 2005; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee shall submit its final report to the General Assembly no later than December 31, 2005; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Forestry Utilization Committee shall terminate December 31, 2005; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 33

WHEREAS, for many years, residents in the greater St. Louis area enjoyed regular airline service by TWA to and from Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA); and

WHEREAS, St. Louis is a large market, with over 2.6 million people in the St. Louis Metropolitan Statistical Area, and for the year 2003, the St. Louis-Washington market (not including BWI) ranked 13th among Washington destinations inside the 1,250-mile perimeter with 243,302 passengers; and

WHEREAS, because TWA was the dominant airline in St. Louis, fares were relatively high, especially for business travelers who often traveled on a few days' notice. When American Airlines acquired TWA several years ago, they significantly reduced their presence in St. Louis and service to Washington, D.C. has suffered as a result; and

WHEREAS, American Airlines now operates its DCA to STL services using regional jets with a seating capacity of 50 or less seats, United Airlines operates three daily roundtrips using regional jets between St. Louis and Dulles, and Southwest Airlines only flies to BWI, not to DCA or Dulles; and

WHEREAS, with such a lack of competition for flights to Washington, D.C., Primaris, a new entrant airline, would introduce competition in the market served currently only by American Airlines; and

WHEREAS, Primaris proposes to operate a twice-daily premium service between STL and DCA using Boeing 757 aircraft with 126-seat capacity in a two-by-two configuration for passenger comfort; and

WHEREAS, Primaris will provide this premium service which is equal to or better than the current business class service and will offer fares significantly lower than most coach class fares of American Airlines' commuter affiliates that now conduct DCA-STL operations; and

WHEREAS, while recognizing that the United States Congress has given the federal Department of Transportation authority to grant only a few slot exemptions, given the size of the St. Louis market and the current lack of competition on the DCA-STL route, approval of Primaris Airlines' application is strongly recommended to serve the St. Louis-Washington, D.C. market:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Senate of the Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Department of Transportation to grant approval to Primaris Airlines' application in Docket OST 2000-7182 for the operation of twice-daily service between Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA) and Lambert-St. Louis International Airport (STL); and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Honorable Norman Y. Mineta, Secretary of Transportation, and each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SB 739, entitled:

An act to amend chapter 640, RSMo, by adding thereto four new sections relating to environmental regulation.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cunningham (145) in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Your Word declares, "Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of the foolish will suffer harm." Grant us wise companionship and counsel that we may become wiser.

Give us understanding of this truth: that where there is a lack of wise counsel, our purposes are frustrated, but with the abundance of good counsel, plans are accomplished.

May we give the right answer at the right time in the hope that everyone would hear and respond appropriately.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Hillary Greenwell, Shelby Schmitz, Paige Dimmitt, Miranda Lawson, Sephra Pompa and Curtisea Pompa.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed.

Speaker Hanaway assumed the Chair.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1040, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"160.261. 1. The local board of education of each school district shall clearly establish a written policy of discipline, including the district's determination on the use of corporal punishment and the procedures in which punishment will be applied. A written copy of the district's discipline policy and corporal punishment procedures, if applicable, shall be provided to the pupil and parent or legal guardian of every pupil enrolled in the district at the beginning of each school year and also made available in the office of the superintendent of such district, during normal business hours, for public inspection. All employees of the district shall annually receive instruction related to the specific contents of the policy of discipline and any interpretations necessary to implement the provisions of the policy in the course of their duties, including but not limited to approved methods of dealing with acts of school violence, disciplining students with disabilities and instruction in the necessity and requirements for confidentiality.

2. The policy shall require school administrators to report acts of school violence to teachers and other school district employees with a need to know. For the purposes of this chapter or chapter 167, RSMo, "need to know" is defined as school personnel who are directly responsible for the student's education or who otherwise interact with the student on a professional basis while acting within the scope of their assigned duties. As used in this section, the phrase "act of school violence" or "violent behavior" means the exertion of physical force by a student with the intent to do serious physical injury as defined in subdivision (6) of section 565.002, RSMo, to another person while on school property, including a school bus in service on behalf of the district, or while involved in school activities. The policy shall at a minimum require school administrators to report, as soon as reasonably practical, to the appropriate law enforcement agency any of the following felonies, or any act which if committed by an adult would be one of the following felonies:

- (1) First degree murder under section 565.020, RSMo;
- (2) Second degree murder under section 565.021, RSMo;

- (3) Kidnapping under section 565.110, RSMo;
- (4) First degree assault under section 565.050, RSMo;
- (5) Forcible rape under section 566.030, RSMo;
- (6) Forcible sodomy under section 566.060, RSMo;
- (7) Burglary in the first degree under section 569.160, RSMo;
- (8) Burglary in the second degree under section 569.170, RSMo;
- (9) Robbery in the first degree under section 569.020, RSMo;
- (10) Distribution of drugs under section 195.211, RSMo;
- (11) Distribution of drugs to a minor under section 195.212, RSMo;
- (12) Arson in the first degree under section 569.040, RSMo;
- (13) Voluntary manslaughter under section 565.023, RSMo;
- (14) Involuntary manslaughter under section 565.024, RSMo;
- (15) Second degree assault under section 565.060, RSMo;
- (16) Sexual assault under section 566.040, RSMo;
- (17) Felonious restraint under section 565.120, RSMo;
- (18) Property damage in the first degree under section 569.100, RSMo;
- (19) The possession of a weapon under chapter 571, RSMo;
- (20) Child molestation in the first degree pursuant to section 566.067, RSMo;
- (21) Deviate sexual assault pursuant to section 566.070, RSMo;
- (22) Sexual misconduct involving a child pursuant to section 566.083, RSMo; or
- (23) Sexual abuse pursuant to section 566.100, RSMo;

committed on school property, including but not limited to actions on any school bus in service on behalf of the district or while involved in school activities. The policy shall require that any portion of a student's individualized education program that is related to demonstrated or potentially violent behavior shall be provided to any teacher and other school district employees who are directly responsible for the student's education or who otherwise interact with the student on an educational basis while acting within the scope of their assigned duties. The policy shall also contain the consequences of failure to obey standards of conduct set by the local board of education, and the importance of the standards to the maintenance of an atmosphere where orderly learning is possible and encouraged.

3. The policy shall provide that any student who is on suspension for any of the offenses listed in subsection 2 of this section or any act of violence or drug-related activity defined by school district policy as a serious violation of school discipline pursuant to subsection 9 of this section shall have as a condition of his or her suspension the requirement that such student is not allowed, while on such suspension, to be within one thousand feet of any public school in the school district where such student attended school unless:

- (1) Such student is under the direct supervision of the student's parent, legal guardian, or custodian;
- (2) Such student is under the direct supervision of another adult designated by the student's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, in advance, in writing, to the principal of the school which suspended the student; or
- (3) Such student resides within one thousand feet of any public school in the school district where such student attended school in which case such student may be on the property of his or her residence without direct adult supervision.

4. Any student who violates the condition of suspension required pursuant to subsection 3 of this section may be subject to expulsion or further suspension pursuant to the provisions of sections 167.161, 167.164, and 167.171, RSMo. In making this determination consideration shall be given to whether the student poses a threat to the safety of any child or school employee and whether such student's unsupervised presence within one thousand feet of the school is disruptive to the educational process or undermines the effectiveness of the school's disciplinary policy. Removal of any pupil who is a student with a disability is subject to state and federal procedural rights.

[3.] 5. The policy shall provide for a suspension for a period of not less than one year, or expulsion, for a student who is determined to have brought a weapon to school, including but not limited to the school playground or the school parking lot, brought a weapon on a school bus or brought a weapon to a school activity whether on or off of the school property in violation of district policy, except that:

- (1) The superintendent, or in a school district with no high school, the principal of the school which such child attends may modify such suspension on a case-by-case basis; and
- (2) This section shall not prevent the school district from providing educational services in an alternative setting to a student suspended under the provisions of this section.

[4.] 6. For the purpose of this section, the term "weapon" shall mean a firearm as defined under 18 U.S.C. 921 and the following items, as defined in section 571.010, RSMo: a blackjack, a concealable firearm, an explosive weapon, a firearm, a firearm silencer, a gas gun, a knife, knuckles, a machine gun, a projectile weapon, a rifle, a shotgun, a spring gun or a switchblade knife; except that this section shall not be construed to prohibit a school board from adopting a policy to allow a Civil War reenactor to carry a Civil War era weapon on school property for educational purposes so long as the firearm is unloaded. The local board of education shall define weapon in the discipline policy. Such definition shall include the weapons defined in this subsection but may also include other weapons.

[5.] 7. All school district personnel responsible for the care and supervision of students are authorized to hold every pupil strictly accountable for any disorderly conduct in school or on any property of the school, on any school bus going to or returning from school, during school-sponsored activities, or during intermission or recess periods.

[6.] 8. Teachers and other authorized district personnel in public schools responsible for the care, supervision, and discipline of schoolchildren, including volunteers selected with reasonable care by the school district, shall not be civilly liable when acting in conformity with the established policy of discipline developed by each board under this section, or when reporting to his or her supervisor or other person as mandated by state law, acts of school violence or threatened acts of school violence, within the course and scope of the duties of the teacher, authorized district personnel or volunteer, when such individual is acting in conformity with the established policies developed by the board. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a new cause of action against such school district, or to relieve the school district from liability for the negligent acts of such persons.

[7.] 9. Each school board shall define in its discipline policy acts of violence and any other acts that constitute a serious violation of that policy. Acts of violence as defined by school boards shall include but not be limited to exertion of physical force by a student with the intent to do serious bodily harm to another person while on school property, including a school bus in service on behalf of the district, or while involved in school activities. School districts shall for each student enrolled in the school district compile and maintain records of any serious violation of the district's discipline policy. Such records shall be made available to teachers and other school district employees with a need to know while acting within the scope of their assigned duties, and shall be provided as required in section 167.020, RSMo, to any school district in which the student subsequently attempts to enroll.

[8.] 10. Spanking, when administered by certificated personnel of a school district in a reasonable manner in accordance with the local board of education's written policy of discipline, is not abuse within the meaning of chapter 210, RSMo. The provisions of sections 210.110 to 210.165, RSMo, notwithstanding, the division of family services shall not have jurisdiction over or investigate any report of alleged child abuse arising out of or related to any spanking administered in a reasonable manner by any certificated school personnel pursuant to a written policy of discipline established by the board of education of the school district. Upon receipt of any reports of child abuse by the division of family services pursuant to sections 210.110 to 210.165, RSMo, which allegedly involves personnel of a school district, the division of family services shall notify the superintendent of schools of the district or, if the person named in the alleged incident is the superintendent of schools, the president of the school board of the school district where the alleged incident occurred. If, after an initial investigation, the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board finds that the report involves an alleged incident of child abuse other than the administration of a spanking by certificated school personnel pursuant to a written policy of discipline or a report made for the sole purpose of harassing a public school employee, the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board shall immediately refer the matter back to the division of family services and take no further action. In all matters referred back to the division of family services, the division of family services shall treat the report in the same manner as other reports of alleged child abuse received by the division. If the report pertains to an alleged incident which arose out of or is related to a spanking administered by certificated personnel of a school district pursuant to a written policy of discipline or a report made for the sole purpose of harassing a public school employee, a notification of the reported child abuse shall be sent by the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board to the juvenile officer of the county in which the alleged incident occurred. The report shall be jointly investigated by the juvenile officer or a law enforcement officer designated by the juvenile officer and the superintendent of schools or, if the subject of the report is the superintendent of schools, by the juvenile officer or a law enforcement officer designated by the juvenile officer and the president of the school board or such president's designee. The investigation shall begin no later than forty-eight hours after notification from the division of family services is received, and shall consist of, but need not be limited to, interviewing and recording statements of the child and the child's parents or guardian within two working days after the start of the investigation, of the school district personnel allegedly involved in the report, and of any witnesses to the alleged incident. The juvenile officer or a law enforcement officer designated by the juvenile officer and the investigating school district personnel shall issue separate reports of their findings and recommendations after the conclusion of the investigation to the school board of the school district within seven days after receiving notice from the division of family services. The reports shall contain a statement of conclusion as to whether the report of alleged child abuse is substantiated or is unsubstantiated. The school board shall consider the separate reports and shall issue its findings and conclusions and the action to be taken, if any, within seven days after receiving the last of the two reports. The findings and conclusions shall be made in substantially the following form:

(1) The report of the alleged child abuse is unsubstantiated. The juvenile officer or a law enforcement officer designated by the juvenile officer and the investigating school board personnel agree that the evidence shows that no abuse occurred;

(2) The report of the alleged child abuse is substantiated. The juvenile officer or a law enforcement officer designated by the juvenile officer and the investigating school district personnel agree that the evidence is sufficient to support a finding that the alleged incident of child abuse did occur;

(3) The issue involved in the alleged incident of child abuse is unresolved. The juvenile officer or a law enforcement officer designated by the juvenile officer and the investigating school personnel are unable to agree on their findings and conclusions on the alleged incident.

[9.] 11. The findings and conclusions of the school board shall be sent to the division of family services. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the report of the alleged child abuse is unsubstantiated, the investigation shall be terminated, the case closed, and no record shall be entered in the division of family services' central registry. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the report of the alleged child abuse is substantiated, the division of family services shall report the incident to the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county along with the findings and conclusions of the school district and shall include the information in the division's central registry. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the issue involved in the alleged incident of child abuse is unresolved, the division of family services shall report the incident to the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county along with the findings and conclusions of the school board, however, the incident and the names of the parties allegedly involved shall not be entered into the central registry of the division of family services unless and until the alleged child abuse is substantiated by a court of competent jurisdiction.

[10.] 12. Any superintendent of schools, president of a school board or such person's designee or juvenile officer who knowingly falsifies any report of any matter pursuant to this section or who knowingly withholds any information relative to any investigation or report pursuant to this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor."; and

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1040, Page 5, Section 162.261, Line 16, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"167.031. 1. Every parent, guardian or other person in this state having charge, control or custody of a child not enrolled in a public, private, parochial, parish school or full-time equivalent attendance in a combination of such schools and between the ages of seven [and sixteen] years and the compulsory attendance age for the district is responsible for enrolling the child in a program of academic instruction which complies with subsection 2 of this section. Any parent, guardian or other person who enrolls a child between the ages of five and seven years in a public school program of academic instruction shall cause such child to attend the academic program on a regular basis, according to this section. Nonattendance by such child shall cause such parent, guardian or other responsible person to be in violation of the provisions of section 167.061, except as provided by this section. A parent, guardian or other person in this state having charge, control, or custody of a child between the ages of seven [and sixteen] years of age and the compulsory attendance age for the district shall cause the child to attend regularly some public, private, parochial, parish, home school or a combination of such schools not less than the entire school term of the school which the child attends; except that

(1) A child who, to the satisfaction of the superintendent of public schools of the district in which he resides, or if there is no superintendent then the chief school officer, is determined to be mentally or physically incapacitated may be excused from attendance at school for the full time required, or any part thereof;

(2) A child between fourteen [and sixteen] years of age and the compulsory attendance age for the district may be excused from attendance at school for the full time required, or any part thereof, by the superintendent of public schools of the district, or if there is none then by a court of competent jurisdiction, when legal employment has been obtained by the child and found to be desirable, and after the parents or guardian of the child have been advised of the pending action; or

(3) A child between five and seven years of age shall be excused from attendance at school if a parent, guardian or other person having charge, control or custody of the child makes a written request that the child be dropped from the school's rolls.

2. (1) As used in sections 167.031 to 167.071, a "home school" is a school, whether incorporated or unincorporated, that:

- (a) Has as its primary purpose the provision of private or religious-based instruction;
- (b) Enrolls pupils between the ages of seven [and sixteen] years and the compulsory attendance age for the district, of which no more than four are unrelated by affinity or consanguinity in the third degree; and
- (c) Does not charge or receive consideration in the form of tuition, fees, or other remuneration in a genuine and fair exchange for provision of instruction;

(2) As evidence that a child is receiving regular instruction, the parent shall, except as otherwise provided in this subsection:

- (a) Maintain the following records:
 - a. A plan book, diary, or other written record indicating subjects taught and activities engaged in; and
 - b. A portfolio of samples of the child's academic work; and
 - c. A record of evaluations of the child's academic progress; or
 - d. Other written, or credible evidence equivalent to subparagraphs a., b. and c.; and
- (b) Offer at least one thousand hours of instruction, at least six hundred hours of which will be in reading, language arts, mathematics, social studies and science or academic courses that are related to the aforementioned subject areas and consonant with the pupil's age and ability. At least four hundred of the six hundred hours shall occur at the regular home school location;

(3) The requirements of subdivision (2) of this subsection shall not apply to any pupil above the age of sixteen years.

3. Nothing in this section shall require a private, parochial, parish or home school to include in its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice in conflict with the school's religious doctrines or to exclude from its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice consistent with the school's religious doctrines. Any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, all departments or agencies of the state of Missouri shall be prohibited from dictating through rule, regulation or other device any statewide curriculum for private, parochial, parish or home schools.

4. A school year begins on the first day of July and ends on the thirtieth day of June following.

5. The production by a parent of a daily log showing that a home school has a course of instruction which satisfies the requirements of this section or, in the case of a pupil over the age of sixteen years who attended a metropolitan school district the previous year, a written statement that the pupil is attending home school in compliance with this section shall be a defense to any prosecution under this section and to any charge or action for educational neglect brought pursuant to chapter 210, RSMo.

6. As used in sections 167.031 to 167.051, the term "compulsory attendance age for the district" shall mean:

Representative Muckler offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1040, Page 5, Section 162.261, Line 16, by adding after all of said line the following:

“163.036. 1. In computing the amount of state aid a school district is entitled to receive for the minimum school term only under section 163.031, a school district may use an estimate of the number of eligible pupils for the ensuing year, the number of eligible pupils for the immediately preceding year or the number of eligible pupils for the second preceding school year, whichever is greater. Beginning with the 2004-2005 school year, the summer school add-on for eligible pupils, as defined in section 163.011, shall include only those eligible pupils that attend summer school in the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of this section, any error made in the apportionment of state aid because of a difference between the actual number of eligible pupils and the estimated number of eligible pupils shall be corrected as provided in section 163.091, except that if the amount paid to a district estimating eligible pupils exceeds the amount to which the district was actually entitled by more than five percent, interest at the rate of six percent shall be charged on the excess and shall be added to the amount to be deducted from the district's apportionment the next succeeding year.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section or any other provision of law, the state board of education shall make an adjustment for the immediately preceding year for any increase in the actual number of eligible pupils above the number on which the state aid in section 163.031 was calculated. Said adjustment shall be made in the manner providing for correction of errors under subsection 1 of this section.

3. (1) For any district which has, for at least five years immediately preceding the year in which the error is discovered, adopted a calendar for the school term in which elementary schools are in session for twelve months of each calendar year, any error made in the apportionment of state aid to such district because of a difference between the actual number of eligible pupils and the estimated number of eligible pupils shall be corrected as provided in section 163.091 and subsection 1 of this section, except that if the amount paid exceeds the amount to which the district was actually entitled by more than five percent and the district provides written application to the state board requesting that the deductions be made pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection, then the amounts shall be deducted pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(2) For deductions made pursuant to this subdivision, interest at the rate of six percent shall be charged on the excess and shall be included in the amount deducted and the total amount of such excess plus accrued interest shall be deducted from the district's apportionment in equal monthly amounts beginning with the succeeding school year and extending for a period of months specified by the district in its written request and no longer than sixty months.

4. For the purposes of distribution of state school aid pursuant to section 163.031, a school district may elect to use the district's equalized assessed valuation for the preceding year, or an estimate of the current year's assessed valuation if the current year's equalized assessed valuation is estimated to be more than ten percent less than the district's equalized assessed valuation for the preceding year. A district shall give prior notice to the department of its intention to use the current year's assessed valuation pursuant to this subsection. Any error made in the apportionment of state aid because of a difference between the actual equalized assessed valuation for the current year and the estimated equalized assessed valuation for the current year shall be corrected as provided in section 163.091, except that if the amount paid to a district estimating current equalized assessed valuation exceeds the amount to which the district was actually entitled, interest at the rate of six percent shall be charged on the excess and shall be added to the amount to be deducted from the district's apportionment the next succeeding year.

5. For the purposes of distribution of state school aid pursuant to section 163.031, a school district with ten percent or more of its assessed valuation that is owned by one person or corporation as commercial or personal property who is delinquent in a property tax payment may elect, after receiving notice from the county clerk on or before March fifteenth, except in the year enacted, that more than ten percent of its current taxes due the preceding December thirty-first by a single property owner are delinquent, to use on line 2 of the state aid formula the district's equalized assessed valuation for the preceding year or the actual assessed valuation of the year for which the taxes are delinquent less the assessed valuation of property for which the current year's property tax is delinquent. To qualify for use of the actual assessed valuation of the year for which the taxes are delinquent less the assessed valuation of property for which the current year's property tax is delinquent, a district must notify the department of elementary and secondary education on or before April first, except in the year enacted, of the current year amount of delinquent taxes, the assessed valuation of such property for which delinquent taxes are owed and the total assessed valuation of the district for the year in which the taxes were due but not paid. Any district giving such notice to the department of elementary and secondary education shall present verification of the accuracy of such notice obtained from the clerk of the county levying delinquent taxes. When any of the delinquent taxes identified by such notice are paid during a four- year period following the due date, the county clerk shall give notice to the district and the department of elementary and secondary education, and state aid paid to the district shall be reduced by an amount equal to the delinquent taxes received plus interest. The reduction in state aid shall occur over a period not to exceed five years and the interest rate on excess state aid not refunded shall be six percent annually.

6. If a district receives state aid based on equalized assessed valuation as determined by subsection 5 of this section and if prior to such notice the district was paid state aid pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection 5 of section 163.031, the amount of state aid paid during the year of such notice and the first year following shall equal the sum of state aid paid pursuant to line 1 minus line 10 as defined in subsections 1, 2, 3 and 6 of section 163.031 plus the difference between the state aid amount being paid after such notice minus the amount of state aid the district would have received pursuant to line 1 minus line 10 as defined in subsections 1, 2, 3 and 6 of section 163.031 before such notice. To be eligible to receive state aid based on this provision the district must levy during the first year following such notice at least the maximum levy permitted school districts by article X, section 11(b) of the Missouri Constitution and have a voluntary rollback of its tax rate which is no greater than one cent per one hundred dollars assessed valuation.” ; and

"163.031. 1. School districts which meet the requirements of section 163.021 shall be entitled to an amount computed as follows: an amount determined by multiplying the number of eligible pupils by the lesser of the district's equalized operating levy for school purposes as defined in section 163.011 or two dollars and seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation multiplied by the guaranteed tax base per eligible pupil times the proration factor plus an amount determined by multiplying the number of eligible pupils by the greater of zero or the district's equalized operating levy for school purposes as defined in section 163.011 minus two dollars and seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation multiplied by the guaranteed tax base per eligible pupil times the proration factor. For the purposes of this section, the proration factor shall be equal to the sum of the total appropriation for distribution under subsections 1 and 2 of this section; and the state total of the deductions as calculated in subsection 2 of this section which do not exceed the district entitlements as adjusted by the same proration factor; divided by the amount of the state total of district entitlements before proration as calculated pursuant to this subsection; provided that, if the proration factor so calculated is greater than one, the proration factor for line 1(b) shall be the greater of one or the proration factor for line 1(a) minus five hundredths, and provided that if the proration factor so calculated is less than one, the proration factor for line 1(a) shall be the lesser of one or the proration factor for line 1(b) plus five hundredths.

2. From the district entitlement for each district there shall be deducted the following amounts: an amount determined by multiplying the district equalized assessed valuation by the district's equalized operating levy for school purposes times the district income factor plus ninety percent of any payment received the current year of protested taxes due in prior years no earlier than the 1997 tax year minus the amount of any protested taxes due in the current year and for which notice of protest was received during the current year; one hundred percent of the amount received the previous year for school purposes from intangible taxes, fines, forfeitures and escheats, payments in lieu of taxes and receipts from state assessed railroad and utility tax, except that any penalty paid after July 1, 1995, by a concentrated animal feeding operation as defined by the department of natural resources rule shall not be included; one hundred percent of the amounts received the previous year for school purposes from federal properties pursuant to sections 12.070 and 12.080, RSMo; federal impact aid received the previous year for school purposes pursuant to P.L. 81-874 less fifty thousand dollars multiplied by ninety percent or the maximum percentage allowed by federal regulation if that percentage is less than ninety; fifty percent, or the percentage otherwise provided in section 163.087 of Proposition C revenues received the previous year for school purposes from the school district trust fund pursuant to section 163.087; one hundred percent of the amount received the previous year for school purposes from the fair share fund pursuant to section 149.015, RSMo; and one hundred percent of the amount received the previous year for school purposes from the free textbook fund, pursuant to section 148.360, RSMo.

There shall be individual proration factors for each categorical entitlement provided for in this subsection, and each proration factor shall be determined by annual appropriations, but no categorical proration factor shall exceed the entitlement proration factor established pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, except that the vocational education entitlement proration factor established pursuant to line 16 of subsection 6 of this section and the educational and screening program entitlements proration factor established pursuant to line 17 of subsection 6 of this section may exceed the entitlement proration factor established pursuant to subsection 1 of this section. The categorical add-on for the district shall be the sum of: seventy-five percent of the costs of adopting and providing a violence prevention program pursuant to section 161.650, RSMo, multiplied by the proration factor; seventy-five percent of the district allowable transportation costs pursuant to section 163.161 multiplied by the proration factor; the special education approved or allowed cost entitlement for the district, provided for by section 162.975, RSMo, multiplied by the proration factor; seventy-five percent of the district gifted education approved or allowable cost entitlement as determined pursuant to section 162.975, RSMo, multiplied by the proration factor; the free and reduced lunch eligible pupil count for the district, as defined in section 163.011, multiplied by twenty percent, for a district with an operating levy in excess of two dollars and seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation, or twenty-two percent, otherwise times the guaranteed tax base per eligible pupil times two dollars and seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation times the proration factor plus the free and reduced lunch eligible pupil count for the district, as defined in section 163.011, times thirty percent times the guaranteed tax base per eligible pupil times the following quantity: ((the greater of zero or the district's operating levy for school purposes minus two dollars and seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation) times one or, beginning in the fifth year following the effective date of this section, the quotient of the district's fiscal instructional ratio of efficiency for the prior year divided by the fiscal year 1998 statewide average fiscal instructional ratio of efficiency, if the district's prior year fiscal instructional ratio of efficiency is at least five percent below the fiscal year 1998 statewide average) times the proration factor, minus court-ordered state desegregation aid received by the district for operating purposes; the career ladder entitlement for the district, as provided for in sections 168.500 to 168.515, RSMo, [multiplied by the proration factor]; the vocational education entitlement for the district, as provided for in section 167.332, RSMo, multiplied by the proration factor and the district educational and screening program entitlements as provided for in sections 178.691 to 178.699, RSMo, times the proration factor.

(1) In the 1993-94 school year and all subsequent school years, pursuant to section 10(c) of article X of the state constitution, a school district shall adjust upward its operating levy for school purposes to the extent necessary for the district to at least maintain the current operating expenditures per pupil received by the district from all sources in the 1992-93 school year, except that its operating levy for school purposes shall not exceed the highest tax rate in effect subsequent to the 1980 tax year, or the minimum rate required by subsection 2 of section 163.021, whichever is less.

(2) The revenue per eligible pupil received by a district from the following sources: line 1 minus line 10, or zero if line 1 minus line 10 is less than zero, plus line 14 of subsection 6 of this section, shall not be less than the revenue per eligible pupil received by a district in the 1992-93 school year from the foundation formula entitlement payment amount plus the amount of line 14 per eligible pupil that exceeds the line 14 per pupil amount from the 1997-98 school year, or the revenue per eligible pupil received by a district in the 1992-93 school year from the foundation formula entitlement payment amount plus the amount of line 14(a) per eligible pupil times the quotient of line 1 minus line 10, divided by the number of eligible pupils, or zero if line 1 minus line 10 is less than zero, divided by the revenue per eligible pupil received by the district in the 1992-93 school year from the foundation formula entitlement payment amount, whichever is greater. The department of elementary and secondary education shall make an addition in the payment amount of line 19 of subsection 6 of this section to assure compliance with the provisions contained in this section.

(3) For any school district which meets the eligibility criteria for state aid as established in section 163.021, but which under subsections 1 to 4 of this section, receives no state aid for two successive school years, other than categorical add-ons, by August first following the second such school year, the commissioner of education shall present a plan to the superintendent of the school district for the waiver of rules and the duration of said waivers, in order to promote flexibility in the operations of the district and to enhance and encourage efficiency in the delivery of instructional services. The provisions of other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the plan presented to the superintendent shall provide a summary waiver, with no conditions, for the pupil testing requirements pursuant to section 160.257, RSMo. Further, the provisions of other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the plan shall detail a means for the waiver of requirements otherwise imposed on the school district related to the authority of the state board of education to classify school districts pursuant to section 161.092, RSMo, and such other rules as determined by the commissioner of education, except that such waivers shall not include the provisions established pursuant to sections 160.514 and 160.518, RSMo.

(4) In the 1993-94 school year and each school year thereafter for two years, those districts which are entitled to receive state aid under subsections 1 to 4 of this section, shall receive state aid in an amount per eligible pupil as provided in this subsection. For the 1993-94 school year, the amount per eligible pupil shall be twenty-five percent of the amount of state aid per eligible pupil calculated for the district for the 1993-94 school year pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section plus seventy-five percent of the total amount of state aid received by the district from all sources for the 1992-93 school year for which the district is entitled and which are distributed in the 1993-94 school year pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section. For the 1994-95 school year, the amount per eligible pupil shall be fifty percent of the amount of state aid per eligible pupil calculated for the district for the 1994-95 school year pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section plus fifty percent of the total amount of state aid received by the district from all sources for the 1992-93 school year for which the district is entitled and which are distributed in the 1994-95 school year pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section. For the 1995-96 school year, the amount of state aid per eligible pupil shall be seventy-five percent of the amount of state aid per eligible pupil calculated for the district for the 1995-96 school year pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section plus twenty-five percent of the total amount of state aid received by the district from all sources for the 1992-93 school year for which the district is entitled and which are distributed in the 1995-96 school year pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the authority of a school district to raise its district operating levy pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(5) If the total of state aid apportionments to all districts pursuant to subdivision (3) of this subsection is less than the total of state aid apportionments calculated pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section, then the difference shall be deposited in the outstanding schools trust fund. If the total of state aid apportionments to all districts pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection is greater than the total of state aid apportionments calculated pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 of this section, then funds shall be transferred from the outstanding schools trust fund to the state school moneys fund to the extent necessary to fund the district entitlements as modified by subdivision (4) of this subsection for that school year with a district entitlement proration factor no less than one and such transfer shall be given priority over all other uses for the outstanding schools trust fund as otherwise provided by law.

6. State aid shall be determined as follows:

9. If a school district's annual audit discloses that students were inappropriately identified as eligible for free or reduced-price lunch and the district does not resolve the audit finding, the department of elementary and secondary education shall require that the amount of line 14 aid paid on the inappropriately identified pupils be repaid by the district in the next school year and shall additionally impose a penalty of one hundred percent of the line 14 aid paid on such pupils, which penalty shall also be paid within the next school year. Such amounts may be repaid by the district through the withholding of the amount of state aid."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 168.126, Line 49, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"168.515. 1. Each teacher selected to participate in a career plan established under sections 168.500 to 168.515, who meets the requirements of such plan, shall receive a salary supplement, the state's share of which shall be distributed under section 163.031, RSMo, equal to the following amounts [multiplied by the proration factor applied to the career ladder entitlement of line 15 of subsection 6 of section 163.031, RSMo]:

- (1) Career stage I teachers may receive up to an additional one thousand five hundred dollars per school year;
- (2) Career stage II teachers may receive up to an additional three thousand dollars per school year;
- (3) Career stage III teachers may receive up to an additional five thousand dollars per school year.

All teachers within each stage within the same school district shall receive equal salary supplements.

2. The state shall make payments pursuant to section 163.031, RSMo, to the local school district for the purpose of reimbursing the local school district for the payment of any salary supplements provided for in this section, subject to the availability of funds as appropriated each year and distributed on a variable match formula which shall be based on equalized assessed valuation of the district for the second preceding school year. A district's equalized assessed valuation shall be multiplied by the district income factor defined in section 163.011, RSMo, and shall be known as the adjusted equalized assessed valuation.

3. In distributing these matching funds, school districts shall be ranked by the adjusted equalized assessed valuation for the second preceding school year per eligible pupil from the highest to the lowest and divided into three groups. Group one shall contain the highest twenty-five percent of all public school districts, groups two and three combined shall contain the remaining seventy-five percent of all public school districts. The districts in groups two and three shall be rank ordered from largest to smallest based on enrollment as of the last Wednesday in September during the second preceding school year, group two shall contain twenty-five percent of all public school districts that are larger on the enrollment based rank ordered list and group three shall contain the remaining fifty percent of all public school districts. Pursuant to subsection 4 of this section, districts in group one shall receive forty percent state funding and shall contribute sixty percent local funding, group two shall receive fifty percent state funding and shall contribute fifty percent local funding and group three shall receive sixty percent state funding and shall contribute forty percent local funding.

4. The incremental groups are as follows:

Group	Percentage of Districts	Percentage of State Funding	Percentage of Local Funding
1	25%	40%	60%
2	25%	50%	50%
3	50%	60%	40%

5. Beginning in the 1996-97 school year, any school district in any group which participated in the career ladder program in 1995-96 and paid less than the local funding percentage required by subsection 4 of this section shall increase its local share of career ladder costs by five percentage points from the preceding year until the district pays the percentage share of cost required by subsection 4 of this section, and in no case shall the local funding percentage be increased by a greater amount for any year. For any district, the state payment shall not exceed the local payment times the state percentage share divided by the local percentage share. Any district not participating in the 1995-96 school year or any district which interrupts its career ladder program for any subsequent year shall enter the program on the cost-sharing basis required by subsection 4 of this section.

6. Not less than every fourth year, beginning with calendar year 1988, the general assembly, through the joint committee established under section 160.254, RSMo, shall review the amount of the career pay provided for in this section to determine if any increases are necessary to reflect the increases in the cost of living which have occurred since the salary supplements were last reviewed or set.

7. To participate in the salary supplement program established under this section, a school district may submit to the voters of the district a proposition to increase taxes for this purpose. If a school district's current tax rate ceiling is at or above the rate from which an increase would require a two-thirds majority, the school board may submit to the voters of the district a proposition to reduce or eliminate the amount of the levy reduction resulting from section 164.013, RSMo. If a majority of the voters voting thereon vote in favor of the proposition, the board may certify that seventy-five percent of the revenue generated from this source shall be used to implement the salary supplement program established under this section.

8. In no case shall a school district use state funds received under this section nor local revenue generated from a tax established under subsection 7 of this section to comply with the minimum salary requirements for teachers established pursuant to section 163.172, RSMo.

9. Beginning in the 1996-97 school year, for any teacher who participated in the career program in the 1995-96 school year, continues to participate in the program thereafter, and remains qualified to receive career pay pursuant to section 168.510, the state's share of the teacher's salary supplement shall continue to be the percentage paid by the state in the 1995-96 school year, notwithstanding any provisions of subsection 4 of this section to the contrary, and the state shall continue to pay such percentage of the teacher's salary supplement until any of the following occurs:

- (1) The teacher ceases his or her participation in the program; or
- (2) The teacher suspends his or her participation in the program for any school year after the 1995-96 school year. If the teacher later resumes participation in the program, the state funding shall be subject to the provisions of subsection 4 of this section."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 5, Section 302.272, Line 66, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section B. Because immediate action is necessary to aid school finances the repeal and reenactment of sections 163.031 and 168.515 of section A of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace, and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the repeal and reenactment of sections 163.031 and 168.515 of section A of this act shall be in full force and effect on July 1, 2004, or upon its passage and approval, whichever later occurs."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

(This prayer is attributed to Abraham Lincoln. Let it be our prayer this morning.)

God bless our native land; firm may she ever stand through storm and night; when the wild tempests rave, O Ruler of wind and wave, Thou Who art strong to save, be Thou her might!

For her our prayer shall be, our father's God, to Thee, on whom we wait; be her walls, holiness - her rulers righteousness, in all her homes be peace, God save the state!

Not for this land alone, but be God's mercies shown from shore to shore and may the nations see that men should brothers be, and form one family the wide-world o'er. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we honor Your Word which says, "Those who control their anger have great understanding; those with a hasty temper will make mistakes." We ask for a calm and undisturbed mind and heart that we may be able to judge rightly information set before us, listen intently to discussions on the floor, and calmly make decisions based on sound principles.

But first, we would be negligent, if we did not thank You for allowing us to enjoy the beauty of family, life, health and liberty. Help us to remember the simple things in life that we may appreciate even more the privilege of serving one another.

Whatever the present need, trial, or struggle might be, You are the One who governs cycles and seasons. Our seasons are in Your hands.

May Your grace be sufficient for all we do.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

Representative Dixon introduced the Springfield Central High School Choir who performed "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "God Bless America" in honor of Presidents' Day.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Representative Davis (19) assumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Holy God, Almighty Father of all humankind, the rally yesterday demanded that our attention turn to resources for the education of children and youth. From other directions we are shown the need to form children in other basic values that they might become trustworthy and productive citizens. And some children do not have parents able to nurture them, and these become wards of the State, demanding and deserving our special care.

About our children, we remember Your word given to us in a proverb: Train children in the way they should go, and even when they are old, they will not swerve from it. (Proverbs 22:6).

Dear God, whatever the agenda we work on today, guide us to be sensitive to its effects upon children and youth. When the time comes for making decisions that affect the well being of children and youth, give us the understanding to know what is best for their education and their healthy formation and growth. May Your Holy Spirit stir in us a truly parental attitude and concern for those children who are in the custody and care of the State.

We pray to You, who are our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Laura Portwood.

The Journal of the twenty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

All interest and penalties collected under the provisions of this law, including moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128 for the payment of interest due on federal advances received pursuant to section 288.330, or if the fund is not utilizing moneys advanced by the federal government, then the payment of principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to bonds issued under section 288.330, or the payment of the principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to financial agreements under subdivision (17) of subsection 2 of section 288.330, or the payment of the principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to a combination of bonds and financial agreements shall be paid into this fund. The moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128 shall be used [exclusively] for the payment of interest due on federal advances received pursuant to section 288.330, or if the fund is not utilizing moneys advanced by the federal government, then the payment of principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to bonds issued under that section, or the payment of principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to financial agreements under subdivision (17) of subsection 2 of section 288.330, or the payment of the principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to a combination of bonds and financial agreements. Such moneys, except for moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128, shall not be expended or available for expenditure in any manner which would permit their substitution for, or a corresponding reduction in, federal funds which would in the absence of such money be available to finance expenditures for the administration of the employment security law, but nothing in this section shall prevent such moneys, except for moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128, from being used as a revolving fund, to cover expenditures, necessary and proper under the law, for which federal funds have been duly requested but not yet received, subject to the charging of such expenditures against such funds when received. Subject to the approval of the director of the department of labor and industrial relations, the moneys in this fund, except for moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128, shall be used by the department of labor and industrial relations for the payment of costs of administration which are found not to have been properly and validly chargeable against federal grants or other funds received for or in the unemployment compensation administration fund. Such moneys, except for moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128, shall be available either to satisfy the obligations incurred by the department of labor and industrial relations for the division directly or by requesting the board of fund commissioners to transfer the required amount from the special employment security fund to the unemployment compensation administration fund. The board of fund commissioners shall upon receipt of a written request of the department of labor and industrial relations make any such transfer. No expenditures of this fund or transfer herein provided, except for moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128, shall be made unless and until the director of the department of labor and industrial relations finds that no other funds are available or can properly be used to finance such expenditures, except that as hereinafter authorized expenditures from such fund may be made for the purpose of acquiring lands and buildings, or for the erection of buildings on lands so acquired, which are deemed necessary by the director of the department of labor and industrial relations for the proper administration of this law. The director of the department of labor and industrial relations shall order the transfer of such funds or the payment of any such obligation and such funds shall be paid by the state treasurer on requisitions drawn by the director of the department of labor and industrial relations directing the state auditor to issue his or her warrant therefor. Any such warrant shall be drawn by the state auditor based upon bills of particulars and vouchers certified by an officer or employee designated by the director of the department of labor and industrial relations. Such certification shall among other things include a duly certified copy of the director of the department of labor and industrial relations' findings hereinbefore referred to. The moneys in this fund, except for moneys collected pursuant to section 288.128, are hereby specifically made available to replace, within a reasonable time, any moneys received by this state pursuant to section 302 of the Federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.A. Sec. 502), as amended, which, because of any action or contingency, have been lost or have been expended for purposes other than, or in amounts in excess of, those necessary for the proper administration of the employment security law. The moneys in this fund shall be continuously available to the director of the department of labor and industrial relations for expenditure in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall not lapse at any time or be transferred to any other fund except as herein provided."; and

Further amend said bill, Pages 54 to 64, Section 288.330, Lines 22 to 24 and 1 to 24 and 1 to 24 and 1 to 24 and 1 to 24 and 1 to 24 and 1 to 24 and 1 to 2, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"288.330. 1. Benefits shall be deemed to be due and payable only to the extent that moneys are available to the credit of the unemployment compensation fund and neither the state nor the division shall be liable for any amount in excess of such sums. [Neither the state of Missouri, nor any person or agency acting for it, may under any circumstance, by issuing bonds or otherwise borrow money from any source whatsoever to pay benefits hereunder, except as provided in 42 U.S.C.A. Section 1321.] The governor is authorized to apply for an advance to the state unemployment fund and to accept the responsibility for the repayment of such advance [in accordance with the conditions specified in Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended,] in order to secure to this state and its citizens the advantages available under the provisions of [such title] federal law. Effective January 1, 2006, in the event the fund balance including any outstanding loans or indebtedness is less than or equal to zero and the governor applies for an advance as provided in 42 U.S.C. Section 1321 or the state is required to incur other indebtedness as authorized in this chapter in order to maintain funding for the payment of benefits as authorized by this chapter, the state of Missouri shall be obligated to pay the interest incurred as a result of such advance or indebtedness.

2. (1) The purpose of this subsection is to provide a method of financing the replenishment of the state's unemployment compensation fund as an alternative to borrowing or obtaining advances from the federal unemployment trust fund or for refinancing those loans or advances, and to provide a method through which the state may continue its unemployment compensation program at the least possible cost to the state and its employers.

(2) For the purposes of this subsection, "bond" means any type of obligation issued under this section, including any bond, note, tax anticipation note or similar instrument.

(3) There is hereby created for the purposes of implementing the provisions of this subsection a body corporate and politic to be known as the "Missouri Commission on Employment Security Financing". The powers of the commission shall be vested in seven commissioners who shall be residents of this state and be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate except that the director of the division of employment security shall serve as a nonvoting ex officio member of the commission. The commission shall have all powers necessary to effectuate its purposes including without limitation the power to provide a seal, keep records of its proceedings, provide for professional services, and elect a chair from its members. Not more than four of the commissioners shall be of the same political party.

(a) The commissioners shall serve five-year terms with each term beginning July first and ending on June thirtieth, except that of the commissioners first appointed one shall be appointed for a term of two years, two shall be appointed for a term of three years, two shall be appointed for a term of four years, and two shall be appointed for a term of five years. Each commissioner appointed thereafter shall be appointed for a term ending five years from the date of expiration of the term for which his or her predecessor was appointed, except that a person appointed to fill a vacancy prior to the expiration of such a term shall be appointed for the remainder of the term. No commissioner appointed under this subsection by the governor shall serve more than two consecutive full terms. Each commissioner shall hold office for the term of his or her appointment and until his or her successor is appointed and qualified.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary:

a. No officer or employee of this state shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of an appointment as a commissioner to the commission or for his or her service to the commission;

b. It shall not constitute a conflict of interest for a director, officer, or employee of any financial institution, investment banking firm, brokerage firm, commercial bank or trust company, architectural firm, insurance company, or any other firm, person, or corporation, to serve as a commissioner of the commission, provided such trustee, director, officer, or employee shall abstain from deliberation, action, and vote by the commission in each instance where the business affiliation or public office association of any such trustee, director, officer, or employee is involved.

(c) Before entering into his or her duties each commissioner shall execute a surety bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or in lieu thereof the chair of the commission may execute a blanket bond covering all members of the commission with each surety bond to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of the office or offices covered and to be executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state as a surety and to be approved by the attorney general and filed in the office of the secretary of state. The cost of each such bond shall be paid by the commission.

(d) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties under this subsection, but each commissioner shall be reimbursed from the funds of the commission for his or her actual and necessary expenses incurred in carrying out his or her official duties under this subsection.

(e) In the event that any of the commissioners or officers of the commission whose signatures or facsimile signatures appear on any bonds shall cease to be commissioners or officers before the delivery of such bonds, their signatures or facsimile signatures shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes as if such commissioners or officers had remained in office until delivery of such bonds.

(f) The commissioners executing the bonds of the commission shall not be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds.

(g) The commission shall following the close of each fiscal year submit an annual report of its activities for the preceding year to the governor and the general assembly. Each report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement for the commission during the fiscal year it covers. At least once in each year an independent certified public accountant shall audit the records and accounts of the commission.

(4) The commission is authorized to issue, sell, and deliver bonds which shall mature no later than ten years after issuance in the name of the commission in an amount determined by the commission not to exceed a total of four hundred fifty million dollars of indebtedness that results in reducing or avoiding the need to borrow or obtain an advance under 42 U.S.C., Section 1321, or any similar federal legislation, or in an amount necessary to refinance any borrowing or advance previously made by the state for those purposes. The commission shall make an affirmative finding that the issuance of bonds for the purposes established in this section results in a savings to the state and its employers.

(5) The commission shall provide for the payment of the principal of the bonds, any redemption premiums, the interest on the bonds, and the costs attributable to the bonds being issued or outstanding as provided in this subsection and in section 288.310. Unless the commission directs otherwise, the bonds shall be repaid in the same time frame and in the same amounts as would be required for loans issued pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Section 1321; however, in no case shall bond indebtedness continue beyond five consecutive years.

(6) The commission may irrevocably pledge money received from the contributions received under section 288.128 as revenue for the payment of bonds and deposited in an account created for such purpose in the special employment security fund or other money legally available to it.

(7) Bonds issued under this section shall not constitute debts of this state or of any agency, political corporation, or political subdivision of this state and are not a pledge of the faith and credit of this state or of any of those governmental entities. The bonds are payable only from revenue provided for under this chapter. The bonds shall contain a statement to the effect that:

(a) Neither the state nor any agency, political corporation, or political subdivision of the state shall be obligated to pay the principal or interest on the bonds except as provided by this section; and

(b) Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state nor any agency, political corporation, or political subdivision of the state is pledged to the payment of the principal, premium, if any, or interest on the bonds except as provided by this section.

(8) The owner of any bonds issued under this section shall at the time of purchase agree to waive any right of recovery and forever hold harmless the state and any agency, political corporation, or political subdivision thereof. The bond owner shall agree the sole source of revenue for repayment of such bonds shall be those revenues derived from contributions received under section 288.128.

(9) The state pledges and agrees with the owners of any bonds issued under this section that the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the commission to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the owners or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the owners until the bonds are fully discharged except as provided by this section.

(10) The commission may provide for the flow of funds and the establishment and maintenance of separate accounts within the special employment security fund, including the interest and sinking account, the reserve account, and other necessary accounts, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds in the documents authorizing the issuance of bonds including refunding bonds. The resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from appropriated moneys or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be payable from appropriated moneys on a parity with or subordinate to the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued and may contain other provisions and covenants as determined by the commission.

(11) The commission may issue bonds to refund all or any part of the outstanding bonds issued under this section including matured but unpaid interest.

(12) The bonds issued by the commission, any transaction relating to the bonds, and profits made from the sale of the bonds are free from taxation by the state or by any municipality, court, special district, or other political subdivision of the state.

(13) As determined necessary by the commission the proceeds of the bonds less the cost of issuance shall be placed in the state's unemployment compensation fund and may be used for the purposes for which that fund may otherwise be used. If those net proceeds are not placed immediately in the unemployment compensation fund they shall be held in the special employment security fund in an account designated for that purpose until they are transferred to the unemployment compensation fund.

(14) The commission may enter into any contract or agreement deemed necessary or desirable to effectuate cost effective financing hereunder. Such agreements may include credit enhancement, credit support, or interest rate agreements. Any fees or costs associated with such agreements shall be deemed administrative expenses for the purposes of calculating assessments relating to payment of the principal, interest, and administrative expenses related to bonds pursuant to the provisions of section 288.128.

(15) To the extent this section conflicts with other laws the provisions of this section prevail. This section shall not be subject to the provisions of sections 23.250 to 23.298, RSMo.

(16) If the United States Secretary of Labor holds that a provision of this subsection does not conform with a federal statute or would result in the loss to the state of any federal funds otherwise available to it the commission may administer this subsection to conform with the federal statute until the general assembly meets in its next regular session and has an opportunity to amend this subsection.

(17) (a) As used in this subdivision the term "lender" means any state or national bank.

(b) The commission is authorized to enter financial agreements with any lender that result in reducing or avoiding the need to borrow or obtain an advance under 42 U.S.C., Section 1321, or any similar federal legislation. The total amount of the outstanding obligation under the agreement shall not exceed the difference of four hundred fifty million dollars and the bond indebtedness incurred under this subsection. In no instance shall such indebtedness under any financial agreement continue for more than five consecutive years. Repayment of obligations to lenders shall be made from the special employment security fund, section 288.310.

3. In event of the suspension of this law, any unobligated funds in the unemployment compensation fund, and returned by the United States Treasurer because such Federal Social Security Act is inoperative, shall be held in custody by the treasurer and under supervision of the division until the legislature shall provide for the disposition thereof. In event no disposition is made by the legislature at the next regular meeting subsequent to suspension of said law, then all unobligated funds shall be returned ratably to those who contributed thereto."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 65, Section 288.385, Line 13, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"4. The department of labor and industrial relations by and through the division may analyze and project financial data for proposed legislation. In doing so the department and the division shall provide any financial data, projections, or models relating to pending legislation to the sponsor or sponsors of such legislation at least forty-eight hours prior to making such information public. Failure to comply with this subsection shall result in a five hundred dollar civil penalty per violation levied against the agent or employee of the department or division responsible for such violation."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 65, Section 288.395, Lines 14 to 23, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Any person or entity who has previously pled guilty to or has been found guilty of perpetrating a fraud or misrepresentation under this chapter and who subsequently violated any such provisions shall be guilty of a class D felony."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we yield to Your Word, which declares, "Commit your work to the Lord, and then your plans will succeed." So we roll our work upon You assuring success in all we do.

Heavenly Father, we are overwhelmed by the abundance of mercy and grace which You have so generously lavished upon us and all that concerns us. So we continue in Your mercy and grace as we seek resolution to the issues that separate us.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Richard in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

O Lord, our God, we praise You for the warming of the air, the melting of ice and snow, and the peering of sunlight through the clouds. Through these You promise the new life and the freshening of springtime.

Early springtime finds this assembly participating in the seeking of financial resources and allocating them justly. Bless us with clarity of vision, so that we might be able to see what is just, what is fair, what is equitable. Bless us with the integrity always to work for liberty and justice for all.

We pray for the ability to avoid the trap of allowing situations in which the rich get richer and the poor get poorer. Help us to do our part to establish policy and develop laws that make it possible for the working poor to work their way out of poverty.

We thank You, O Lord, for the trust that both You and the people have placed in us.

We praise You, our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Titus Folks, Kyle Lorenz, Savanah Beck and Hannah Lewnczuk.

The Journal of the twenty-fourth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Dr. Monte Shinkle, Concord Baptist Church, Jefferson City, Missouri.

Dear Heavenly Father,

I thank You today for Your mercy and grace You have so richly poured out upon us. You are a great God and I praise You.

Thank You for the privilege of living in this free land.

Thank You for the freedoms we enjoy as American citizens.

Thank You for the freedom to call on You for guidance.

Thank You for Your wonderful promise to give us wisdom when we ask.

Thank You for these elected officials who are exhorted in Your Holy Word to seek Your face for wisdom and blessing.

Thank You for the democratic process You have allowed to flourish in our land.

Today I call on You Lord; for wisdom to make godly decisions. For blessings upon this body and its many members. For blessings upon the families of these elected officials of our state. Where there is sickness, will You please heal? Where there is distress, will You bring peace? Where there is confusion, will You bring guidance? Where there are hard feelings, will You bring forgiveness? Where there is sin, will You bring conviction and cleansing? Dear God, in this day of great distress in our country, will You please heal our land?

In the name of Jesus Christ I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Representative Emery assumed the Chair.

The Journal of the twenty-fifth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, we thank You for this new day. We thank You for the wonders of creation that we call natural resources. You have given humankind dominion over created things. We show our respect for You, the Creator, by the dominion of proper care for them.

Highways and messages along these highways have been brought to our attention. As we consider them, You call us away from excessive self-interest and partisanship and toward concern for the common good.

We think of valleys that "shall be filled in", hills that "shall be made low" and of "rough" ways that shall be made smooth. (Isaiah 40:4) What is best for the common good? Where are resources to pay for improvements? What messages respect the Creator? Which ones insult the Creator?

Give us knowledge, O Lord, to understand what is best for the common good. Give us right judgment and courage to do our part in carrying it out.

We pray to You, who are our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Eli Clouse, Tanner Heet, Jonathan Norman, Joseph Willis, Ashlee Bross, Katherine Hodgson, Josh Gingrich and Josh Chittum.

The Journal of the twenty-sixth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we trust Your Word, which says, "How much better to get wisdom than gold, and knowledge than silver!" We celebrate the changeless things that surround our lives: wisdom, knowledge, commitment and discernment. Help us to pursue these as a way of life.

May we never take for granted changing seasons, which remind us of the constancy of Your own presence and restoring power, Your mercies which are new every morning, and the freedom we have to engage in spirited deliberations.

We give thanks for all these things.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Curtis Bramblett, Eric Greenwald, Brendan McGregor, Brittany Godbout, Sarah Hirner and Steffani Lane.

The Journal of the twenty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Any parent, guardian or other person who enrolls a child between the ages of five and seven years in a public school program of academic instruction shall cause such child to attend the academic program on a regular basis, according to this section. Nonattendance by such child shall cause such parent, guardian or other responsible person to be in violation of the provisions of section 167.061, except as provided by this section. A parent, guardian or other person in this state having charge, control, or custody of a child between the ages of seven [and sixteen] years of age and the compulsory attendance age for the district shall cause the child to attend regularly some public, private, parochial, parish, home school or a combination of such schools not less than the entire school term of the school which the child attends; except that

(3) A child between five and seven years of age shall be excused from attendance at school if a parent, guardian or other person having charge, control or custody of the child makes a written request that the child be dropped from the school's rolls.

2. (1) As used in sections 167.031 to 167.071, a "home school" is a school, whether incorporated or unincorporated, that:

Any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, all departments or agencies of the state of Missouri shall be prohibited from dictating through rule, regulation or other device any statewide curriculum for private, parochial, parish or home schools.

6. As used in sections 167.031 to 167.051, the term "compulsory attendance age for the district" shall mean:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

February 25, 2004

TO THE CHIEF CLERK OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you House Concurrent Resolution No. 5 entitled:

“AN ACT”

By concurrent resolution and pursuant to Article IV, Section 8, to disapprove the final order of rulemaking for the proposed amendment to 1 CSR 10-4.010 relating to State of Missouri Vendor Payroll Deductions.

I disapprove of House Concurrent Resolution No. 5. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 5 purports to permanently disapprove and suspend an amendment to 1 CSR 10-4.010, filed as an order of rulemaking. The rule amendment filed by the Office of Administration merely clarifies the state's ability to make vendor payroll deductions, including collecting fair share fees from state employees who are members of collective bargaining units and have authorized the deduction of such fees. HCR 5 purports to find the rule amendment in violation of the provisions of sections 536.014 (governing agency rulemaking authority) or 536.205 (governing fiscal notes associated with proposed rules), RSMo.

The rule amendment does not violate any provision of Missouri statute. Because the Office of Administration has rulemaking authority in this area, section 536.014 is satisfied. The Joint Committee has never taken issue with the Office of Administration's authority to promulgate rules including 1 CSR 10-4.010; instead it has only now acted to disapprove this narrow amendment. This action is logically and legally inconsistent: either the Office of Administration has authority to make rules concerning vendor payroll deduction, or it does not. Given the uncontroversial previous promulgation of CSR 10-4.010, as well as the provisions of Section 536.010, 536.023, 33.103, and 370.395 RSMo 2000 (as amended) the Office of Administration plainly has such authority.

Section 536.205, which requires a statement of expenses to be imposed by any rule which would cost private entities more than five hundred dollars, is also satisfied, because the rule amendment does not impose any private cost. The rule amendment only clarifies the ability of the Office of Administration to make certain vendor payroll deductions under specific circumstances. No actual fee is imposed on any private party by the rule amendment.

HCR 5 is misguided, both as a matter of procedure and as a matter of substance. Procedurally, HCR 5 reflects an inappropriate use of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, an entity established by executive order for the narrow purpose of reviewing agency rulemaking authority. The General Assembly has produced no legitimate question as to the legal authority of the Office of Administration to promulgate the rule amendment. Members of the General Assembly simply object to collective bargaining by state government employees and thus seek to block the mechanisms that make such bargaining possible. The General Assembly ought not to use the procedural mechanism of a resolution of disapproval to block a rule that its members only dislike on philosophical grounds.

I disagree with those who oppose collective bargaining rights for state employees. My administration has fought and will continue to fight tirelessly for the right of all working Missourians to have their voice heard by their employers. All of society benefits when working people have a seat at the bargaining table. That is as true in the public sector as it is in the private sector.

Most Missouri state employees do not share the privileges and benefits accorded to their elected officials. Rather, the majority of our public servants do difficult and vital work, often for low pay and little recognition. As Governor, I have a responsibility to ensure that our hard-working state employees are treated fairly and equitably by their employer. An essential component of fair and equitable treatment is the right of workers to bargain collectively and negotiate on a level playing field. I am proud of our record in this area, and I will not tolerate efforts by the General Assembly or any other party to interfere with employees' right of representation. The fair allocation of the costs of such representation is a basic aspect of collective bargaining. The use of fair share fees, voluntarily agreed to by new state employees, is both appropriate and necessary to protect the right of self-representation.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Concurrent Resolution No. 5 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Bob Holden
Governor

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTIETH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 1, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, it is written, "When pride comes, then comes dishonor, but with the humble there is wisdom." Therefore we choose to live our lives humbly before You, rejecting pride at every opportunity.

Help us to retain this truth in our hearts: It is better to be patient than powerful. It is better to win control over ourselves than over whole cities.

Grant us the peace and privilege to celebrate our accomplishments on behalf of those we serve and the insight to know that at the end of the day all praise is reserved, without exception, for You.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Representative Stefanick assumed the Chair.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord God, You never forget any of Your people. Give us the vision and the discipline to think that way. Help us to give steady attention to the common good. As we listen to one another, and as we take our stand, as we study and research the issues, guide us to keep in focus what is best for the common good.

Holy Lord, while You never forget any of Your people, at the same time You have a special concern for the poor. We have poor children, the disabled poor, the elderly poor, and the working poor. As we work for the common good, give us a special concern, even an affection, for the poor.

When we never forget any of the people, and when we take special care of the poor, our work is godly. Today, O Lord, and every day, may our work be godly and may we be godly.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ericka Sayler, Billy Johnson, Allison Monnig, Jared Henderson, Rudy Jovanovic, Derek Walling, Chanel Mosley, Rachel Franck, Brenton Miller, Terry Smith, John Hayes, Grant Oserowsky, Alex Oserowsky, Charmmura Henderson and Quenasha Gray.

Representative Shoemaker assumed the Chair.

Interest shall be allowed on all money due upon any judgment or order of any court from the day of rendering the same until satisfaction be made by payment, accord or sale of property; all such judgments and orders for money upon contracts bearing more than nine percent interest shall bear the same interest borne by such contracts, and, except as provided by subsection 3 of this section, all other judgments and orders for money shall bear nine percent per annum until satisfaction made as aforesaid.

2. In tort actions, if a claimant has made a demand for payment of a claim or an offer of settlement of a claim, to the party, parties or their representatives, and to such party’s liability insurer if known to the claimant, and the amount of the judgment or order exceeds the demand for payment or offer of settlement, then prejudgment interest, [at the rate specified in subsection 1 of this section, shall] may be awarded, calculated from a date [sixty] ninety days after the demand or offer was [made] received, as shown by the certified mail return receipt, or from the date the demand or offer was rejected without counter offer, whichever is earlier. 3. JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we trust Your Word, which says, "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit saps a person's strength." May we approach this day with renewed strength, a cheerful disposition and an enthusiastic devotion to those duties that lie ahead.

Since You are directing our steps, we need no specific understanding of everything that happens along the way. Therefore, may Your loving-kindness and mercy, truth and faithfulness, forever preserve us. Our hope is grounded in Your unshakable promises.

May You guide us in justice and teach us Your way.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sarah Howard, Jaszmyne Fassett, Charmmura Henderson, Quenasha Gray, Dustin Lattimer, Whitney Wright and Stacy Griswold.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 33

WHEREAS, for many years, residents in the greater St. Louis area enjoyed regular airline service by TWA to and from Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA); and

WHEREAS, St. Louis is a large market, with over 2.6 million people in the St. Louis Metropolitan Statistical Area, and for the year 2003, the St. Louis-Washington market (not including BWI) ranked 13th among Washington destinations inside the 1,250-mile perimeter with 243,302 passengers; and

WHEREAS, because TWA was the dominant airline in St. Louis, fares were relatively high, especially for business travelers who often traveled on a few days' notice. When American Airlines acquired TWA several years ago, they significantly reduced their presence in St. Louis and service to Washington, D.C. has suffered as a result; and

WHEREAS, American Airlines now operates its DCA to STL services using regional jets with a seating capacity of 50 or less seats, United Airlines operates three daily roundtrips using regional jets between St. Louis and Dulles, and Southwest Airlines only flies to BWI, not to DCA or Dulles; and

WHEREAS, with such a lack of competition for flights to Washington, D.C., Primaris, a new entrant airline, would introduce competition in the market served currently only by American Airlines; and

WHEREAS, Primaris proposes to operate a twice-daily premium service between STL and DCA using Boeing 757 aircraft with 126-seat capacity in a two-by-two configuration for passenger comfort; and

WHEREAS, Primaris will provide this premium service which is equal to or better than the current business class service and will offer fares significantly lower than most coach class fares of American Airlines' commuter affiliates that now conduct DCA-STL operations; and

WHEREAS, while recognizing that the United States Congress has given the federal Department of Transportation authority to grant only a few slot exemptions, given the size of the St. Louis market and the current lack of competition on the DCA-STL route, approval of Primaris Airlines' application is strongly recommended to serve the St. Louis-Washington, D.C. market:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Senate of the Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Department of Transportation to grant approval to Primaris Airlines' application in Docket OST 2000-7182 for the operation of twice-daily service between Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA) and Lambert-St. Louis International Airport (STL); and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Honorable Norman Y. Mineta, Secretary of Transportation, and each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

Committee on Senior Security, Chairman Portwood reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Senior Security, to which was referred HB 898, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass.

Special Committee on General Laws, Chairman Wright reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Special Committee on General Laws, to which was referred HB 1363, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass by Consent.

Committee on Transportation and Motor Vehicles, Chairman Crawford reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Transportation and Motor Vehicles, to which was referred HB 826, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass by Consent.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

(The steady rainfall suggests several lines from the Hebrew scripture.)

Thus says the Lord:

"I will give the seasonal rain to your land, the early rain and the late rain, that you may have your grain, wine and oil to gather in; and I will bring forth grass in your fields for your animals. Thus you may eat your fill." (Deuteronomy 11:14-15)

Again, thus says the Lord:

"Let justice descend, O heavens, like dew from above, like gentle rain let the skies drop it down. Let the earth open and salvation bud forth; let justice also spring up! I, the Lord, have created this." (Isaiah 45:8)

Lord God, in accepting public office, we have accepted the task of cultivating the justice, which You have rained down. Help us to carry out this task worthily, so that justice may spring up everywhere, grow healthily and provide for the needs of all the people.

We pray to You, who are our God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Madeleine Irma Esther, Elise Scott, Justin Lees, Erin Smith, Damien Martin and Hannah DeVries.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as corrected.

VETOED HOUSE BILL

HCR 5 - Byrd (94)

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 8, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Your Word declares, "There is no [human] wisdom or understanding or counsel [that can prevail] against the Lord." We may not be able to envision the coming days and months and what surprises they hold, but we are confident of Your continuous presence and guidance.

We appreciate the changing things in our lives: Painted sunsets that are never duplicated, the singing of birds welcoming in the change of season, and the challenges of each day. Help us to remember that though we live in changing times, You are forever constant.

Now may You guide us by Your grace and mercy.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Stephanie Shelley, Michaela Cooper and Connor Stoehr.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

VETOED HOUSE BILL

HCR 5 - Byrd (94)

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord God, You are the Creator of all. We, together and individually, are the work of Your hands.

In the words of the psalmist we pray, "For You make me glad, O Lord, by Your deeds; at the works of Your hands, I rejoice." (Psalm 92:5)

O Lord, we are hard at work this morning. May our work imitate Your work through our great concern for the well-being of those whom we serve. May our work give You honor by our integrity throughout the day.

In faith we receive this teaching: "Entrust your work to the Lord, and your plans will succeed." (Proverbs 16:3)

And in prayer we ask, "Prosper the work of our hands for us! Prosper the work of our hands!" (Psalm 90:17)

You are our Creator and God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kyle Burrow, Michelle Kohler, Raenna Skinner, Kyle Moritz, Millicent P. Belt, Lara Bopp, Courtney Dull, Kathy Merkel, Randy Downs, Katie Monzyk, Joe Kamphoefner, Jake Voss, Antonio Flores, Antonio Hernandez, Joyce Salazar, Caleb Bethard, Jaclyn Rohrs, Tonya Goosen and Emily R. "As used in this section, "the county where the cause of action accrued" shall mean the county where the plaintiff, or, in the case of a wrongful death action, the decedent, was first injured by the wrongful acts or negligent conduct alleged in the action."; and Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Willoughby offered House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 4.

The Chair ruled the point of order well taken.

On motion of Representative Byrd, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Crowell offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1304, Page 20, Section 538.213, Line 21 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"538.220. 1. In any action against a health care provider for damages for personal injury or death arising out of the rendering of or the failure to render health care services, past damages shall be payable in a lump sum.

2. At the request of any party to such action made prior to the entry of judgment, the court shall include in the judgment a requirement that future damages be paid [in whole or in part] in periodic or installment payments if the sum of the total award of past and future damages in the action exceeds one hundred thousand dollars. Any judgment ordering such periodic or installment payments shall specify a future periodic payment schedule, which shall include: the recipient, the amount of each payment, the interval between payments, and the number of payments. The duration of the future periodic payment schedule shall be for a period of time no less than the evidence of life expectancy presented at trial. The amount of each of the future periodic payments shall be determined by dividing the total amount of future damages by the number of future periodic payments. The court shall apply interest on such future periodic payments at a per annum interest rate no greater than the coupon issue yield equivalent, as determined by the Federal Reserve Board, of the average accepted auction price for the last auction of fifty-two week United States Treasury bills settled immediately prior to the date of the judgment. The judgment shall state the applicable interest rate. The state courts administrator shall distribute notice of such rate and any changes in such rate to the circuit clerks of all circuit courts in Missouri. The parties shall be afforded the opportunity to agree on the manner of payment of future damages, [including the rate of interest, if any, to be applied,] subject to court approval. However, in the event the parties cannot agree, the unresolved issues shall be submitted to the court for resolution, either with or without a post-trial evidentiary hearing which may be called at the request of any party or the court. If a defendant makes the request for payment pursuant to this section, such request shall be binding only as to such defendant and shall not apply to or bind any other defendant.

3. As a condition to authorizing periodic payments of future damages, the court may require a judgment debtor who is not adequately insured to post security or purchase an annuity adequate to assure full payment of such damages awarded by the judgment. Upon termination of periodic payments of future damages, the court shall order the return of this security or so much as remains to the judgment debtor.

4. If a plaintiff and his attorney have agreed that attorney's fees shall be paid from the award, as part of a contingent fee arrangement, it shall be presumed that the fee will be paid at the time the judgment becomes final. If the attorney elects to receive part or all of such fees in periodic or installment payments from future damages, the method of payment and all incidents thereto shall be a matter between such attorney and the plaintiff and not subject to the terms of the payment of future damages, whether agreed to by the parties or determined by the court.

5. Upon the death of a judgment creditor, the right to receive payments of future damages, other than future medical damages, being paid by installments or periodic payments will pass in accordance with the Missouri probate code unless otherwise transferred or alienated prior to death. Payment of future medical damages will continue to the estate of the judgment creditor only for as long as necessary to enable the estate to satisfy medical expenses of the judgment creditor that were due and owing at the time of death, which resulted directly from the injury for which damages were awarded, and do not exceed the dollar amount of the total payments for such future medical damages outstanding at the time of death.

6. Nothing in this section shall prevent the parties from contracting and agreeing to settle and resolve the claim for future damages. If such an agreement is reached by the parties, the future periodic payment schedule will become moot."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

“537.067. [1. In all tort actions for damages, in which fault is not assessed to the plaintiff, the defendants shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of the judgment rendered against such defendants.

2. In all tort actions for damages in which fault is assessed to plaintiff the defendants shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of the judgment rendered against such defendants except as follows:

(1) In all such actions in which the trier of fact assesses a percentage of fault to the plaintiff, any party, including the plaintiff, may within thirty days of the date the verdict is rendered move for reallocation of any uncollectible amounts;

(2) If such a motion is filed the court shall determine whether all or part of a party's equitable share of the obligation is uncollectible from that party, and shall reallocate any uncollectible amount among the other parties, including a claimant at fault, according to their respective percentages of fault;

(3) The party whose uncollectible amount is reallocated is nonetheless subject to contribution and to any continuing liability to the claimant on the judgment;

(4) No amount shall be reallocated to any party whose assessed percentage of fault is less than the plaintiff's so as to increase that party's liability by more than a factor of two;

(5) If such a motion is filed, the parties may conduct discovery on the issue of collectibility prior to a hearing on such motion;

(6) Any order of reallocation pursuant to this section shall be entered within one hundred twenty days after the date of filing such a motion for reallocation. If no such order is entered within that time, such motion shall be deemed to be overruled;

Any appeal on an order or denial of reallocation shall be taken within the time provided under applicable rules of civil procedure and shall be consolidated with any other appeal on other issues in the case.

3. This section shall not be construed to expand or restrict the doctrine of joint and several liability except for reallocation as provided in subsection 2] In all tort actions for damages a defendant may not be liable for more than the percentage of damages for which fault is attributed to such defendant by the trier of fact."; and

2. The court shall determine the award of damages to each plaintiff in accordance with the findings, subject to any reduction under subsection 3 of this section and enter judgment against each party liable on the basis of the rules of joint and several liability. However, notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, any defendant against whom an award of damages is made shall be jointly liable only with those defendants whose apportioned percentage of fault is equal to or less than such defendant.

3. Any release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person or entity against which a claim is asserted arising out of the alleged transaction which is the basis for plaintiff's cause of action, whether actually made a party to the action or not, discharges that person or entity from all liability for contribution or indemnity but it does not discharge other persons or entities liable upon such claim unless it so provides. However, the claim of the releasing person against other persons or entities is reduced by the amount of the released persons' or entities' equitable share of the total obligation imposed by the court pursuant to a full apportionment of fault under this section as though there had been no release.]" and

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCS SCR 41.

SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 41

WHEREAS, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service has mandated that the United States Army Corps of Engineers implement a plan for operating the Missouri River that calls for a "spring rise" and a "summer low flow." This plan would result in an increase in the flow of the Missouri River in the spring when the risk of flooding of bottomland farms is already high. The plan also would result in a reduction of the flow of the Missouri River in the summer of each year, thereby negatively affecting farmers, utilities, and businesses from Omaha to the Gulf of Mexico, purportedly to improve habitat for the pallid sturgeon, an endangered fish; and

WHEREAS, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service has dictated these controversial flow changes primarily to benefit only a short segment of the Missouri River where pallid sturgeon have not even been found in six years of sampling; and

WHEREAS, analyses have shown that low river flows could actually degrade habitat important to the pallid sturgeon in segments of the lower Missouri and Mississippi Rivers where pallid sturgeon have been found in recent years; and

WHEREAS, in the summer months of 2002 and 2003, record low flows on the Missouri River increased transportation costs for Missouri farmers by halting navigation, increased power plant cooling costs for private utilities, increased drinking water treatment costs for public utilities across the state of Missouri, and caused water quality violations with the temperature in the Missouri River exceeding 90 degrees. Despite the economic harm already experienced by Missourians, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service has unilaterally mandated summer low flows during the next two years that are virtually identical to those experienced in 2002 and 2003; and

WHEREAS, while the United States Fish and Wildlife Service has failed to provide sufficient scientific evidence that proves that their mandated "spring rise" and "summer low flow" will improve habitat for the pallid sturgeon, analysis has shown that their proposal will increase the risk of flooding bottomland farms along the Missouri River, will result in economic harm to public and private utilities, and will risk the jobs of those who rely on the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers for their livelihoods; and

WHEREAS, the so-called "drought conservation measures" under consideration by the United States Army Corps of Engineers for inclusion in the Missouri River Master Manual would take away usable water from Missourians by shifting the storage of more water to upstream reservoirs while decreasing the amount of water available for other designated downstream uses; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri River contributes up to 65 percent of the Mississippi River flow at St. Louis during low-water conditions; and

WHEREAS, reduction of Missouri River flows would result in more frequent and more costly impediments to commerce on the Mississippi River where more than 120 million tons of cargo, which includes 60 percent of the nation's grain harvest, is shipped annually past St. Louis.

WHEREAS, the United States Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals recently affirmed that the dominant functions of the Missouri River Reservoir System are flood control and navigation, with recreation and other interests being secondary uses:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby respectfully request that the President of the United States direct the United States Fish and Wildlife Service and the United States Army Corps of Engineers to develop a plan for operating the Missouri River Reservoir System that will not increase the risk of flooding for bottomland farmers and will not harm the economy of the Midwestern states by failing to provide adequate flows to meet all designated downstream uses on the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States, each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, and the United States Army Corps of Engineers.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS SB 754, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 67.793, 67.799, 67.1706, and 67.1754, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections relating to the creation of exhibition center and recreational facility districts.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS SB 937, entitled:

An act to amend chapter 28, RSMo, by adding thereto two new sections relating to the Missouri catalog of assistance programs, with sunset provisions.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and passed SCS SB 1040, entitled:

An act to repeal sections 260.370, 260.375, 260.380, 260.475, and 260.479, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections relating to hazardous waste management, with an emergency clause.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, it is written, "Observe people who are good at their work - skilled workers are always in demand and admired; they don't take a back seat to anyone." May we always acknowledge that whatever skills we have obtained, knowledge we have acquired, or recognition we have gained, was given to us by You.

Give us the endurance and strength to persevere throughout this day and all the way to the end of the session. Everything we need, everything we know, everything we have been shown, prepares us for this moment in time. We are people who are blessed by the abundance of Your hand.

We receive Your love and grace beyond measure.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

On this morning of bright sunlight, let us pray from the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi:

The Canticle of Brother Sun

Most high, all-powerful, all good, Lord!
All praise is Yours, all glory, all honor
And all blessing.
To You alone, Most High, do they belong.
No mortal lips are worthy
To pronounce Your name.

All praise be Yours, my Lord, through all that You have made,
And first, my Lord, Brother Sun,
Who brings the day; and light You give to us through Him.
How beautiful is He, how radiant in all His splendor!
Of You, Most High, He bears the likeness.

From You, Most Holy Lord, we ask the gift of light to see Your truth throughout our work today.

With Psalm 148 we pray, "Praise the Lord, sun and moon!" Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Victoria Marie Roeder, Drew Granger, Austin Hansford and Demi Granger.

The Journal of the thirty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 15, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cooper (155) in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Your Word declares, "If you are discouraged in the time of adversity, your strength is limited." May You encourage our hearts in adversity and may our hearts be strengthened by Your unlimited love.

May Your favor rest upon us as we continue through this day; confirm and establish the work of our hands for us - yes, confirm and establish the work of our hands.

May Your mercy, peace and love be ours in abundance.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Allison Paige Boehler.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-NINTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

(If the truth is necessary for all successful human communication, it is essential in the work of this body. We begin with a few words from Jesus' prayer for his disciples, and end with a verse from the Hebrew scriptures.)

Let us pray.

Jesus prayed, "Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As You sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth." (John 17:17-18)

Holy God, today, help us to discern what is true. When several truths compete for our attention, give us the vision to see which is of greater importance in Your view. When several truths deserve consideration at once, give us the wisdom to place them in the order of priority that You would choose.

With the writer of Psalm 25 we pray:

"Guide me in Your truth and teach me, for You are God my Savior, and for You I wait all the day."
(Psalm 25:5)

We pray to You, our God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sarah Castor, Brooklyn Summerville, Sarah Kirkman, Stephanie Anderson, Billy Horton, Matthew Koyne, Melanie Pancoast, Sam Pautler, Laura Jursek, Sang-Woo Nam, Patrick Wilson, Eriq Kristek, Catherine Kristek, Grace Kristek, Parker Breeden, Nicollette Fellwork, AnnaMaria Maples, Sally Cowherd, Shelby Gilbreath, Blake Worm, Zack Meehan, Lauren Staehr, Nicholas de Jong and Connor Burkett.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 795, 972, 1128 & 1161, Page 3, Section 50.339, Line 13, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"64.242. 1. All streets contained within any subdivision plan of development regulated under sections 64.211 to 64.295 shall comply with all county road specifications upon completion of the plan of development.

2. Any board or committee established to govern any part of the subdivision, including any review committees, shall provide proportional representation of the homeowners in the subdivision based on the percentage of homeowners in the subdivision other than the developer. Upon the sale or the completion of the development of the subdivision, the developer shall relinquish all positions on any board or committee governing any part of the subdivision to the homeowners.

3. No member of any board shall have any financial interest in any subdivision of land development project or in any entity that develops subdivisions of land within the county for which the person serves as a member of the board.

64.820. 1. From and after the adoption of the official master plan or portion thereof and its proper certification and recording, thereafter no improvement of a type embraced within the recommendations of the official master plan, or part thereof, shall be constructed or authorized without first submitting the proposed plans thereof to the county planning commission and receiving the written approval or recommendations of the commission. This requirement shall be deemed to be waived if the county planning commission fails to make its report and recommendations within forty-five days after receipt of the proposed plans. In the case of any public improvement sponsored or proposed to be made by any municipality or other political or civil subdivision of the state, or public board, commission or other public officials, the disapproval or recommendations of the county planning commission may be overruled by a two-thirds vote, properly entered of record and certified to the county planning commission, of the governing body of the municipality, or other political or civil subdivision, or public board, commission or officials, after the reasons for the overruling are spread upon its minutes, which reasons shall also be certified to the county planning commission.

2. The county planning or zoning commission shall file a recommendation and report with the county commission. The scope of review by the county commission shall be limited to the recommendation and report of the planning or zoning commission; except that the county commission may hear and consider additional evidence, if the county commission finds that the evidence in the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have been produced, or was improperly excluded at the hearing before the planning or zoning commission. The county commission may in any case hear and consider evidence of alleged irregularities in procedure, or of unfairness by the planning or zoning commission, not shown in the record. The county commission in determining the result reached by the planning or zoning commission shall give due weight to the opportunity of the planning or zoning commission to observe the witnesses and to the expertness and experience of the planning or zoning commission. Whenever the county commission finds there is competent and material evidence, which in the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have been produced, or was improperly excluded at the hearing before the planning or zoning commission, the county commission may remand the case to the planning or zoning commission with directions to reconsider the same in the light of the evidence. The report shall consist of a complete transcript of the entire record, proceedings and evidence before the planning or zoning commission. The county commission before deciding the case shall personally consider the whole record, or such portions thereof as may be cited by the parties, and shall personally consider any oral or written arguments presented by all interested parties."; and

SPECIAL ADDRESS
BY SENATOR CHRISTOPHER "KIT" BOND

Thank you Madam Speaker. It is an honor to be here today to talk about a program that is very close to my heart, Parents as Teachers.

Twenty years ago, when I was Governor, Missouri broke new ground with the enactment of the Early Childhood Development Act which took the Parents as Teachers program state wide. This was a landmark achievement.

Everyone recognizes the importance of a child's first three years and the vital role that parents play, but that was not always that case.

When I was pushing for enactment of the Early Childhood Education Act in the early 1980s, most of you were not yet in the legislature.

Many of you may not realize how forward thinking the concept of parental involvement truly was at the time and how hard a fight it was to get it through the General Assembly.

Today we are fortunate to have the founder of the Parents as Teachers Program here with us today, Mildred Winter. Mildred has been involved from the very beginning. Thanks to her vision and commitment millions of parents have received the support they need to give their child the very best start in life.

My involvement with Parents as Teachers began in 1979. Then Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education, Dr. Arthur Mallory, who worked for me the previous term when I had been Governor, came to talk to me about this very interesting idea. I am so pleased that my good friend Dr. Mallory could be here with us today.

The concept behind Parents as Teachers was developed by a group of Missouri Educators who had noticed that children were starting Kindergarten with varying levels of school readiness.

Research demonstrated that greater family involvement in children's early learning was a critical link to the child's development of academic skills, including reading and writing. They believed that a program to help parents understand their role in encouraging their child's development right from birth could help prepare children for school and life success.

Such a program, available to all families, would help level the playing field for all children. It was Dr. Mallory who first sold me on the merits of the program.

In 1981, this idea was tested with a pilot project at four Missouri school districts. After the pilot had been operating for three years, findings from an evaluation were released.

It showed that children of parents participating in the program consistently scored higher on all measure of intelligence, achievement, auditory comprehension, verbal and language ability, and social development than did children in a comparison group. The idea had worked!

In 1982, I also set up something called the Children's Trust Fund Commission to help reduce child abuse. We brought together 25 eminent children's leaders from education, health and religious organizations around the State who studied child abuse prevention.

They came back in 1984 with the unanimous recommendation to adopt Parents as Teachers as a way to help the families address the challenges of raising a child.

Over these years, I had recommended Parents as Teachers to the Missouri General Assembly. They did not pass it in 1981. They did not pass it in 1982. They did not pass it in 1983. But being stubborn, I came back in 1984, armed with the positive results from the pilot project and with the Director of Corrections.

In testimony before Committee he pointed out that parental involvement and parental responsibility would help reduce the population of our corrections system.

He concluded that supporting Parents as Teachers was one of the most important things we could do for the long-term future of our State.

Fortunately, after a bit of cajoling, a little wheeling and dealing, and a few side deals that I will not mention here, the Missouri General Assembly finally adopted Parents as Teachers as a statewide program in 1984.

This made Missouri one of the first states to recognize that early parent support can reap huge benefits not only for children and families but also for schools, communities, and our country. Missouri was a true pioneer.

I would be remiss if I did not mention a tremendous partner and ally in this effort, Senator Harry Wiggins. Senator Wiggins sponsored the legislation for me in 1984.

I am sorry he could not be here today due to his health. Without his leadership and passion on this issue, success would not have been possible.

I would also like to acknowledge Senators Goode and Bland. They both served in the House of Representatives in 1984 and have been true friends to Parents as Teachers throughout their legislative careers. I thank you.

Over the past 20 years what began as an experiment in Missouri has expanded to more than 3,000 programs in all 50 states, as well as seven other countries.

We estimate that the program has served more than 2 million families over that time. In this past year, in Missouri alone, Parents as Teachers served 164,000 families with more than 175,000 children.

And, as a result of Parents as Teachers, more than 141,000 children were screened for developmental, language, hearing and vision; 16,353 children were identified with potential developmental delays and referred for further evaluation; 12,191 children received follow-up services in Missouri.

Thanks to early identification and intervention more children are getting the care and the services they need to fix problems before they escalate.

The continued success of Parents as Teachers is undeniable, and the research reveals this in many important ways.

For example, independent studies of Parents as Teachers conducted in Missouri since the pilot project have shown that:

At age 3, Parents as Teachers children performed significantly above the national norms on a measure of school-related achievement. This relative level of achievement that Parents as Teachers children achieved at age 3 was maintained at the end of the first and second grade.

Third graders who had received Parents as Teachers visits with screening services scored significantly higher on standardized measures of achievement than their non-participating counterparts. Specifically, on the Stanford Achievement Test, Parents as Teachers children had a national percentile rank of 81, while non-participating students had a rank of 63. Furthermore, Parents as Teachers graduates were less likely to need remedial reading assistance or to be held back a grade in school.

The most recent study of Parents as Teachers, published in 2002, found that the school readiness scores of Missouri's children in high poverty school who participated in PAT were equivalent to those of children at low poverty school who had no preschool enrichment.

Parents as Teachers helps to close the achievement gap - exactly what the program set out to do 20 years ago. In doing so, it is also saving our state money.

Parents as Teachers also engages parents in their child's development and education from the earliest years. For example, one study demonstrated that:

Missouri parents who participated in Parents as Teachers and whose children also participated in either preschool or center-based child care engaged in more frequent home literacy activities - such as reading to their child or telling stories to their child - than parents whose children only participated in either preschool or center-based child care. These home literacy activities were related to the children being rated as having above average preparation for kindergarten.

Furthermore, participation in Parents as Teachers results in increased parental involvement once the child reaches school age, which research shows is positively related to achievement.

Results such as these are why Parents as Teachers must be made available to all families. What family does not benefit from early screenings? What family does not benefit from information about how to best promote their child's early development? I know we did with my son Sam.

This country believes strongly in a public school system to which ALL children have access. In Missouri we had the wisdom to define education as beginning in the earliest years. This means Parents as Teachers can be offered without stigma or labeling and all families can share its benefits.

Today, working men and women are finding it increasingly difficult to balance family and work responsibilities. Certainly, being a parent is hard enough work, and many do not have the tools or resources to give their children the head start they need to succeed.

Increasing support for Parents as Teachers is now more important than ever.

Unfortunately, not all families have access to Parents as Teachers today. Approximately 269,716 families and 332,907 children are served by Parents as Teachers annually nationwide.

And while this is a tremendous accomplishment, there are more families that need to be reached by this life-changing program.

The bill I will introduce soon in Washington, the Education Begins at Home Act, makes a bold federal investment in parents by establishing the first, dedicated federal funding stream to support the expansion of Parents as Teachers at the state and local level.

The bill authorizes $500 million in federal funds over three years to expand services to more than 2.7 million families nationwide. Here in Missouri the funds could be used to supplement, not supplant, current state funding.

The funding will allow Missouri to take Parents as Teachers to the next level - reaching even more families and providing even more intensive services to all families, especially those families with high needs.

The bill will also focus particular attention on encouraging more collaboration between Parents as Teachers and the Early Head Start Program as well as expanding access to PAT for military families and families with limited English proficiency.

Just a few weeks ago, 500 children, parents and early childhood educators gathered in the Capitol Rotunda to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Parents as Teachers Program and to thank the legislature for its support.

They made the trip to Jefferson City because they support and believe in power and the effectiveness of Parents as Teachers.

Some that gathered in the Rotunda were families that participated in the program, some were parent-educators trained in the PAT curriculum, some were teachers and superintendents who are on the front lines everyday and have seen first hand the difference this exceptional program has had in the lives of children and families.

Some of you may have joined them for that important celebration or have met with representatives from your local PAT program. It is hard to come in contact with these folks and not be moved by their stories.

Parents as Teachers is a sound investment in children and families as the results of the program clearly demonstrate.

Missouri was ahead of its time in 1984 when we redefined our public education system to begin at birth and we made parents central to a child's success. The rest of the country is still catching up, just beginning to realize what we've known here for years.

Thank you.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, it is written, “Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a word spoken in right circumstances.” Help us to express our thoughts well so that the words spoken in this place help shape the future of our state and set a standard for the entire nation.

Thank You for Your willingness to lavish life’s fullness on us, over us and around us. Now show us the path, this day, where we should walk, O LORD; point out the right road for us to follow.

May our spoken words and unspoken thoughts be pleasing in Your sight.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

“135.010. As used in sections 135.010 to 135.030 the following words and terms mean:

(1) "Claimant", a person or persons claiming a credit under sections 135.010 to 135.030. If the persons are eligible to file a joint federal income tax return and reside at the same address at any time during the taxable year, then the credit may only be allowed if claimed on a combined Missouri income tax return or a combined claim return reporting their combined incomes and property taxes. A claimant shall not be allowed a property tax credit unless the claimant or spouse has attained the age of sixty-five on or before the last day of the calendar year and the claimant or spouse was a resident of Missouri for the entire year, or the claimant or spouse is a veteran of any branch of the armed forces of the United States or this state who became one hundred percent disabled as a result of such service, or the claimant or spouse is disabled as defined in subdivision (2) of this section, and such claimant or spouse provides proof of such disability in such form and manner, and at such times, as the director of revenue may require, or if the claimant has reached the age of sixty on or before the last day of the calendar year and such claimant received surviving spouse Social Security benefits during the calendar year and the claimant provides proof, as required by the director of revenue, that the claimant received surviving spouse Social Security benefits during the calendar year for which the credit will be claimed. The residency requirement shall be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a surviving spouse for a property tax credit if a person of the age of sixty-five years or older who would have otherwise met the requirements for a property tax credit dies before the last day of the calendar year. The residency requirement shall also be deemed to have been fulfilled for the purpose of determining the eligibility of a claimant who would have otherwise met the requirements for a property tax credit but who dies before the last day of the calendar year;

(2) "Disabled", the inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months. A claimant shall not be required to be gainfully employed prior to such disability to qualify for a property tax credit;

(3) "Gross rent", amount paid by a claimant to a landlord for the rental, at arm's length, of a homestead during the calendar year, exclusive of charges for health and personal care services and food furnished as part of the rental agreement, whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. If the director of revenue determines that the landlord and tenant have not dealt at arm's length, and that the gross rent is excessive, then [he] the director shall determine the gross rent based upon a reasonable amount of rent. Gross rent shall be deemed to be paid only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue may prescribe regulations requiring a return of information by a landlord receiving rent, certifying for a calendar year the amount of gross rent received from a tenant claiming a property tax credit and shall, by regulation, provide a method for certification by the claimant of the amount of gross rent paid for any calendar year for which a claim is made. The regulations authorized by this subdivision may require a landlord or a tenant or both to provide data relating to health and personal care services and to food. Neither a landlord nor a tenant may be required to provide data relating to utilities, furniture, home furnishings or appliances;

(4) "Homestead", the dwelling in Missouri owned or rented by the claimant and not to exceed five acres of land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home. It may consist of part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and part of the land upon which it is built. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract and one or more tenants by the entireties, joint tenants, or tenants in common and includes a claimant actually in possession if he was the immediate former owner of record, if a lineal descendant is presently the owner of record, and if the claimant actually pays all taxes upon the property. It may include a mobile home;

(5) "Income", Missouri adjusted gross income as defined in section 143.121, RSMo, less [two] four thousand dollars as an exemption for the claimant's spouse residing at the same address, and increased, where necessary, to reflect the following:

(a) Social Security, railroad retirement, and veterans payments and benefits unless the claimant is a one hundred percent service-connected, disabled veteran or a spouse of a one hundred percent service-connected, disabled veteran. The one hundred percent service-connected disabled veteran shall not be required to list veterans payments and benefits;

(b) The total amount of all other public and private pensions and annuities;

(c) Public relief, public assistance, and unemployment benefits received in cash, other than benefits received under this chapter;

(d) No deduction being allowed for losses not incurred in a trade or business;

(e) Interest on the obligations of the United States, any state, or any of their subdivisions and instrumentalities;

(6) "Property taxes accrued", property taxes paid, exclusive of special assessments, penalties, interest, and charges for service levied on a claimant's homestead in any calendar year. Property taxes shall qualify for the credit only if actually paid prior to the date a return is filed. The director of revenue shall require a tax receipt or other proof of property tax payment. If a homestead is owned only partially by claimant, then "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead which was actually paid by the claimant. For purposes of this subdivision, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the director of revenue for collection. If a claimant owns a homestead part of the preceding calendar year and rents it or a different homestead for part of the same year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead both owned and occupied by the claimant, multiplied by the percentage of twelve months that such property was owned and occupied as the homestead of the claimant during the year. When a claimant owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of taxes allocable to those several properties occupied by the claimant as a homestead for the year. If a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a farm, or multipurpose or multidwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For purposes of this subdivision "unit" refers to the parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part;

(7) "Rent constituting property taxes accrued", twenty percent of the gross rent paid by a claimant and spouse in the calendar year.

(1) The term "maximum upper limit" shall, in the calendar year 1989, be the sum of thirteen thousand five hundred dollars. For each calendar year through December 31, 1992, the maximum upper limit shall be increased by five hundred dollars per year. For calendar years after December 31, 1992, and prior to calendar year 1998, the maximum upper limit shall be the sum used on December 31, 1992. For each calendar year after December 31, 1997, and before calendar year 2005, the maximum upper limit shall be the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. For each calendar year beginning January 1, 2005, the maximum upper limit shall be increased, rounded to the nearest fifty dollar increment, by the same percentage as the increase in the general price level as measured by the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers for the United States, or its successor index, as defined and officially recorded by the United States Department of Labor, or its successor agency;

(2) The term "minimum base" shall, in the calendar year 1989, be the sum of five thousand dollars. For each succeeding calendar year through December 31, 1992, the minimum base shall be increased, in one hundred-dollar increments, by the same percentage as the increase in the general price level as measured by the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the United States, or its successor index, as defined and officially recorded by the United States Department of Labor, or its successor agency, or five percent, whichever is greater. The increase in the index shall be that as first published by the Department of Labor for the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the minimum base is calculated. For calendar years after December 31, 1992, and prior to calendar year 1998, the minimum base shall be the sum used on December 31, 1992. For each calendar year after December 31, 1997, and before calendar year 2005, the minimum base shall be the sum of thirteen thousand dollars. For each calendar year beginning January 1, 2005, the minimum base shall be increased, rounded to the nearest fifty dollar increment, by the same percentage as the increase in the general price level as measured by the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers for the United States, or its successor index, as defined and officially recorded by the United States Department of Labor, or its successor agency.

2. [When calculating the minimum base for purposes of this section, whenever the increase in the Consumer Price Index used in the calculation would result in a figure which is greater than one one-hundred-dollar increment but less than another one-hundred-dollar increment, the director of revenue shall always round that figure off to the next higher one-hundred-dollar increment when determining the table of credits under this section.

3.] If the income on a return is equal to or less than the maximum upper limit for the calendar year for which the return is filed, the property tax credit shall be determined from a table of credits based upon the amount by which the total property tax described in section 135.025 exceeds the percent of income in the following list:

If the income on the return is:	The percent is:
Not over the minimum base	0 percent with credit not to exceed actual property tax or rent equivalent paid up to $750
Over the minimum base but not over the maximum upper limit	1/16 percent accumulative per $300 from 0 percent to 4 percent.

The director of revenue shall prescribe a table based upon the preceding sentences. The property tax shall be in increments of twenty-five dollars and the income in increments of three hundred dollars. The credit shall be the amount rounded to the nearest whole dollar computed on the basis of the property tax and income at the midpoints of each increment. As used in this subsection, the term "accumulative" means an increase by continuous or repeated application of the percent to the income increment at each three hundred dollar level.

[4.] 3. Notwithstanding [the provision of] subsection 4 of section 32.057, RSMo, the department of revenue or any duly authorized employee or agent shall determine whether any taxpayer filing a report or return with the department of revenue who has not applied for the credit allowed pursuant to section 135.020 may qualify for the credit, and shall notify any qualified claimant of [his or her] the claimant's potential eligibility, where the department determines such potential eligibility exists."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray, in the words of Solomon.

“O Lord, my God, You have made me, Your servant, king to succeed my father David;
but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act.
I serve You in the midst of the people whom You have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted.
Give Your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge Your people and distinguish right from wrong.
For who is able to govern this vast people of Yours?”
(1 Kings 3:7-9)

O Lord, our God, give us wise and understanding hearts. There are issues before us demanding our discernment of right from wrongs. There are many needs placed before us competing for limited dollars. There are the disabled and the poor, who depend upon help to overcome poverty or even to survive.

Yes, Lord, give us wisdom and understanding to do our part in governing, so that we give to each according to need and ask from each according to ability.

We pray to You, our God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Grant David Evers, Lindsey Emerson, Clinton Fowler, Hayley Staggs, Brooke Burge, Jessica Eudy, Shane Greaser and Sarah Bachle.

The Journal of the fortieth day was approved as corrected.

Representative Parker assumed the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, it is written, "Anger is cruel, and wrath is like a flood, but who can survive the destructiveness of jealousy?" Help us, in the second half of this legislative session, to engage in lively, constructive debate, while showing civility to one another. May our discussions be stimulating and candid as we seek to do Your will and the will of the electorate.

Thank You for preparing us for such a time as this. May we be fit and able to finish the task before us.

And now unto You be glory both now and forever.....

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

2. Any collision damage waiver product offered for sale to the public shall not contain any provisions that are deceptive, unfair or unconscionable. It is deceptive, unfair, and unconscionable to require a consumer to assume absolute liability for damage or loss up to the total value of a rental vehicle regardless of fault as a condition of the rental agreement, and then not include as part of any collision damage waiver product, a waiver of liability for any damage or loss which occurs as a result of the consumer's ordinary negligence, except where:

(1) The damage is caused intentionally by an authorized driver or as a result of his willful and wanton misconduct;

(2) The damage arises out of the authorized driver's operation of the vehicle while intoxicated or under the influence of any illegal or unauthorized drug;

(3) The rental transaction is based on fraudulent information supplied by the renter;

(4) The damage arises out of the use of the vehicle while committing or otherwise engaged in a criminal act in which the automobile usage is substantially related to the nature of the criminal activity;

(5) The damage arises out of the use of the vehicle to carry persons or property for hire;

(6) The damage occurs while the vehicle is operated by a person other than an authorized driver[. For the purposes of this subsection, "authorized driver" means the person to whom the vehicle is rented; the renter's spouse or other family members who are licensed drivers and satisfy the rental company's minimum age requirement; the renter's employer or co-worker if they are engaged in business activity with the person to whom the vehicle is rented, are licensed drivers, and satisfy the rental company's minimum age requirement; any person who operates the vehicle during an emergency situation or while parking the vehicle at a commercial establishment; and any person expressly listed by the rental company on the rental agreement as an authorized driver] as defined in section 407.730;

(7) The damage arises out of the use of the vehicle outside of the United States unless such use is specifically authorized by the rental agreement;

(8) Towing or pushing anything or if operation of the vehicle on an unpaved road has resulted in damage or loss which is a direct result of the road or driving conditions;

(9) Loss due to the theft of the rental vehicle. However, the renter shall be presumed to have no liability for any loss due to theft if (A) an authorized driver has possession of the ignition key furnished by the rental company or an authorized driver establishes that the ignition key furnished by the car rental company was not in the vehicle at the time of the theft, and (B) an authorized driver files an official report of the theft with the police or other law enforcement agency within twenty-four hours of learning of the theft and reasonably cooperates with the car rental company and the police or other law enforcement agency in providing information concerning the theft. The presumption set forth in this paragraph is a presumption affecting the burden of proof which the car rental company may rebut by establishing that an authorized driver committed, or aided and abetted the commission of, the theft.

3. Any claim resulting from damage to or loss of a rental vehicle shall be reasonably and rationally related to the actual loss incurred. The car rental company shall not assert or collect any claim for physical or mechanical damage to or loss of a rental vehicle which exceeds: the actual cash value of the vehicle immediately before the loss less any proceeds from the vehicle's disposal after the loss, or the actual cost to repair the damaged vehicle including all discounts or price reductions, whichever is less. Such claim shall be based on an estimate of damage or repair invoice made by an independent appraisal company, an insurance company, or a repair facility that completed or would complete the repairs. A car rental company's charge for loss of use shall not exceed a reasonable estimate of the actual income lost.

4. It is a deceptive and unfair practice for a car rental company or employee to misrepresent any material element of a rental agreement transaction or to fail to disclose to consumers [all] any material facts [and restrictions] or restriction applicable to the rental of a vehicle or in the sale of [optional products or services] collision damage waiver and car rental insurance. The company shall disclose in the rental agreement the extent of the consumer's liability for the vehicle and the price for collision damage waiver, car rental insurance, and applicable mileage limitations and charges. A car rental company shall not require the purchase of collision damage waiver or car rental insurance. No car rental company shall sell or offer to sell a consumer a collision damage waiver [product] or car rental insurance as a part of the rental agreement unless the car rental company [first] provides the consumer with the following written notice:

[NOTICE: THIS CONTRACT OFFERS, FOR AN ADDITIONAL CHARGE, A COLLISION DAMAGE WAIVER TO COVER YOUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE TO THE VEHICLE. BEFORE YOU DECIDE WHETHER TO PURCHASE THE COLLISION DAMAGE WAIVER PRODUCT, YOU MAY WISH TO DETERMINE WHETHER YOUR OWN VEHICLE INSURANCE AFFORDS YOU COVERAGE FOR DAMAGE TO THE RENTAL VEHICLE AND THE AMOUNT OF THE DEDUCTIBLE UNDER YOUR OWN INSURANCE COVERAGE. Such notice shall be made on the face of the rental agreement as part of the written contract, shall be set apart in boldface type and in no smaller print than 10-point type, and shall include a space for the consumer to acknowledge his or her receipt of this notice.

5. The car rental company shall provide a notice at the rental office in the form of a sign, placard, or brochure that informs the consumer of the following:

(1) The availability of collision damage waiver;

- (2) The availability of car rental insurance;
- (3) That collision damage waiver and car rental insurance may be added or removed at any time with the charges and benefits applying only during the period of purchase; and

Look to the Lord in His strength;
Seek to serve Him constantly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we are encouraged by Your Word which states, "As a face is reflected in water, so the heart reflects the person." May our hearts, this day, reflect integrity, honesty, and uprightness in Your sight.

May none find occasion for fault in the way we handle our affairs, but may we be found faithful, grateful and responsible.

Pour forth the light of Your love and may we experience countless blessings as we seek to do Your will.

To You be the glory, both now and forever.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Alexandra E. Dalton, P. Chandler Dalton, Erin Mikel, Alexa Mikel and Ross Mikel.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

First, by listening to a saying of Jesus suggested by the new life of Spring.

"Consider how the lilies of the field grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which flourishes today but tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more you, O you of little faith!" (Matthew 6:28-30)

Lord God, this word of Jesus, Your Son, reminds us that You provide the resources to meet the basic needs of all the people. We have a special dominion over these resources, and are responsible to see that they meet the needs of all the people. By Your grace, help us to exercise this dominion faithfully.

Our children are in the springtime of life. April is Child Abuse Prevention Month. Holy Lord, give us Your strength and courage as we pledge ourselves to do our part to prevent the abuse of the children of our state.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 5, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, it is written, "The purity of silver and gold can be tested in a crucible, but a man is tested by his reaction to men's praise." Help us to remain steadfast in the face of praise or criticism; continuing unhampered in our resolve to complete the difficult tasks, which lie ahead.

A book with blank pages is opened to us today. Help us to write concisely, with wisdom, words that will accurately shape the future of this state and its citizens. Our knowledge is finite, Yours is infinite; guide us down the path of Your knowing.

And now unto You be glory both now and forever....

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Matthew Smith and Kyle McCallister.

The Journal of the forty-fifth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Blessed are You, Lord, God of all creation, whose goodness fills our hearts with joy. Blessed are You, who have brought us together this day to work in harmony and peace and to plan what is best for all the people of our State.

Events of the last few days make it clear that our nation is still entangled in the violence of war in Iraq. Protect the men and women of our armed forces there. Grant the leaders of our nation and all the nations involved clarity of vision and right judgment to take the steps necessary for justice and true peace to take hold. Change minds and hearts that terrorist activity cease and that actions that provoke terrorism cease.

In our work today, strengthen us with Your grace and wisdom for You are God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Cerutti, Michael Barry, Meg Endicott, Tim Fagan, Madison Polk, Kendyl Thomas, Carrie Lewis, Kael Stoaks and Michael Penn.

The Journal of the forty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

Heavenly Father, we are encouraged this morning by Your Word, which says, "God keeps every promise He makes. He is like a shield for all who seek His protection." We are thankful this morning that You are a shield for us. We don't take Your protection over us for granted.

“452.310. 1. In any proceeding commenced pursuant to this chapter, the petition, a motion to modify, a motion for a family access order and a motion for contempt shall be verified. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage shall allege that the marriage is irretrievably broken and that therefore there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved. The petition in a proceeding for legal separation shall allege that the marriage is not irretrievably broken and that therefore there remains a reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved.

2. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall set forth:

(1) The residence of each party, including the county, and the length of residence of each party in this state and in the county of residence;

(2) The date of the marriage and the place at which it is registered;

(3) The date on which the parties separated;

(4) The name, date of birth and address of each child, and the parent with whom each child has primarily resided for the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of the petition for dissolution of marriage or legal separation;

(5) Whether the wife is pregnant;

(6) The Social Security number of the petitioner, respondent and each child;

(7) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the children and the maintenance of each party; and

(8) The relief sought.

3. Upon the filing of the petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, each child shall immediately be subject to the jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced, unless a proceeding involving allegations of abuse or neglect of the child is pending in juvenile court. Until permitted by order of the court, neither parent shall remove any child from the jurisdiction of the court or from any parent with whom the child has primarily resided for the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

4. The mere fact that one parent has actual possession of the child at the time of filing shall not create a preference in favor of such parent in any judicial determination regarding custody of the child.

5. The respondent shall be served in the manner provided by the rules of the supreme court and applicable court rules and, to avoid an interlocutory judgment of default, shall file a verified answer within thirty days of the date of service which shall not only admit or deny the allegations of the petition, but shall also set forth:

(1) The Social Security number of the petitioner, respondent and each child;

(2) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the child and the maintenance of each party; and

(3) The relief sought.

6. Previously existing defenses to divorce and legal separation, including but not limited to condonation, connivance, collusion, recrimination, insanity, and lapse of time, are abolished.

7. The petitioner and respondent shall submit a proposed parenting plan, either individually or jointly, within thirty days after service of process or the filing of the entry of appearance, whichever event first occurs of a motion to modify or a petition involving custody or visitation issues. The proposed parenting plan shall set forth the arrangements that the party believes to be in the best interest of the minor children and shall include but not be limited to:

(1) A specific written schedule detailing the custody, visitation and residential time for each child with each party including:

(a) Major holidays stating which holidays a party has each year;

(b) School holidays for school-age children;

(c) The child's birthday, Mother's Day and Father's Day;

(d) Weekday and weekend schedules and for school-age children how the winter, spring, summer and other vacations from school will be spent;

(e) The times and places for transfer of the child between the parties in connection with the residential schedule;

(f) A plan for sharing transportation duties associated with the residential schedule;

(g) Appropriate times for telephone access;

(h) Suggested procedures for notifying the other party when a party requests a temporary variation from the residential schedule;

(i) Any suggested restrictions or limitations on access to a party and the reasons such restrictions are requested;

(2) A specific written plan regarding legal custody which details how the decision-making rights and responsibilities will be shared between the parties including the following:

(a) Educational decisions and methods of communicating information from the school to both parties;

(b) Medical, dental and health care decisions including how health care providers will be selected and a method of communicating medical conditions of the child and how emergency care will be handled;

(c) Extracurricular activities, including a method for determining which activities the child will participate in when those activities involve time during which each party is the custodian;

(d) Child care providers, including how such providers will be selected;

(e) Communication procedures including access to telephone numbers as appropriate;

(f) A dispute resolution procedure for those matters on which the parties disagree or in interpreting the parenting plan;

(g) If a party suggests no shared decision-making, a statement of the reasons for such a request;

(3) How the expenses of the child, including child care, educational and extraordinary expenses as defined in the child support guidelines established by the supreme court, will be paid including:

(c) The payment of educational expenses, if any;

(d) The payment of extraordinary expenses of the child, if any;

(e) Child care expenses, if any;

(f) Transportation expenses, if any.

8. If the proposed parenting plans of the parties differ and the parties cannot resolve the differences or if any party fails to file a proposed parenting plan, upon motion of either party and an opportunity for the parties to be heard, the court shall enter a temporary order containing a parenting plan setting forth the arrangements specified in subsection 7 of this section which will remain in effect until further order of the court. The temporary order entered by the court shall not create a preference for the court in its adjudication of final custody, child support or visitation.

9. Within one hundred twenty days after August 28, 1998, the Missouri supreme court shall have in effect guidelines for a parenting plan form which may be used by the parties pursuant to this section in any dissolution of marriage, legal separation or modification proceeding involving issues of custody and visitation relating to the child.

10. The filing of a parenting plan for any child over the age of eighteen for whom custody, visitation, or support is being established or modified by a court of competent jurisdiction is not required. Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding the filing of a parenting plan upon agreement of the parties or if ordered to do so by the court for any child over the age of eighteen for whom custody, visitation, or support is being established or modified by a court of competent jurisdiction.”; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Blessed be God, who is Creator of all and who has constant concern and love for all He has created.

Today, hundreds of veterans gather around us. We thank God who has placed in them a magnificent patriotism and a self-sacrificing commitment to the security of our nation.

We join these veterans in praying for our armed forces on active duty in the Middle East. Lord God, keep them safe in their time of self-sacrificing service to our country. Take into eternal life and happiness those who have been killed. Send neighbors to give the support, love and assistance needed by their grieving families.

Holy Lord, cause those with the power to make decisions, on all sides of the warfare in Iraq and the Middle East, to seek understanding of each other, and to seek justice and peace through negotiation.

Finally, we pray for ourselves. May we pursue our work with the concern for the well being of our State that our veterans and armed forces demonstrate for our Nation.

We pray to You who are our God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Conway, Caleb Eissler, Olivia Eissler, Noah Louis Copple, Derek Mikek, Will Driscoll, Keyonna Dale and Tori Tate.

The Journal of the forty-eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Further amend said bill and page, Section A, Line 7 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“135.163. 1. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, in order to encourage the retention of physicians and other health care providers in this state, an eligible taxpayer shall be allowed a credit not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars per eligible taxpayer against the tax otherwise due pursuant to chapter 143, RSMo, not including sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo, in an amount equal to fifteen percent of the increase in amount paid by an eligible taxpayer for medical malpractice insurance premiums in the aggregate from one policy period to the next immediate policy period. For purposes of this section, the base policy period for calculation of the credit shall be the medical malpractice insurance policy in effect on August 28, 2004.

2. The tax credit allowed by this section shall be claimed by the taxpayer at the time such taxpayer files a return. Any amount of tax credit which exceeds the tax due shall be carried over to any of the next five subsequent taxable years, but shall not be refunded and shall not be transferable.

3. The director of the department of insurance and the director of the department of revenue shall jointly administer the tax credit authorized by this section. 4. The tax credits issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed a total for all tax credits issued of fifteen million dollars per fiscal year.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 355.176, Line 14 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“379.316. 1. Section 379.017 and sections 379.316 to 379.361 apply to insurance companies incorporated pursuant to sections 379.035 to 379.355, section 379.080, sections 379.060 to 379.075, sections 379.085 to 379.095, sections 379.205 to 379.310, and to insurance companies of a similar type incorporated pursuant to the laws of any other state of the United States, and alien insurers licensed to do business in this state, which transact fire and allied lines, marine and inland marine insurance, to any and all combinations of the foregoing or parts thereof, and to the combination of fire insurance with other types of insurance within one policy form at a single premium, on risks or operations in this state, except:

- (1) Reinsurance, other than joint reinsurance to the extent stated in section 379.331;
- (2) Insurance of vessels or craft, their cargoes, marine builders' risks, marine protection and indemnity, or other risks commonly insured pursuant to marine, as distinguished from inland marine, insurance policies;
- (3) Insurance against loss or damage to aircraft;
- (4) All forms of motor vehicle insurance; and
- (5) All forms of life, accident and health, [and] workers' compensation insurance, and medical malpractice liability insurance.

2. Inland marine insurance shall be deemed to include insurance now or hereafter defined by statute, or by interpretation thereof, or if not so defined or interpreted, by ruling of the director, or as established by general custom of the business, as inland marine insurance.

3. Commercial property and commercial casualty insurance policies are subject to rate and form filing requirements as provided in section 379.321.

383.112. Any insurer or self-insured health care provider that fails to timely report claims information as required by sections 383.100 to 383.125 shall be subject to the provisions of section 374.215, RSMo.

383.150. As used in sections 383.150 to 383.195, the following terms shall mean:

(1) “Association” [means], the joint underwriting association established pursuant to the provisions of sections 383.150 to 383.195;

(2) “Competitive bidding process”, a process under which the director seeks, and insurers may submit, rates at which insurers guarantee to provide medical malpractice liability insurance to any health care provider unable to obtain such insurance in the voluntary market;

(3) “Director” [means], the director of the department of insurance;

[(3)] (4) “Health care provider” includes physicians, dentists, clinical psychologists, pharmacists, optometrists, podiatrists, registered nurses, physicians’ assistants, chiropractors, physical therapists, nurse anesthetists, anesthetists, emergency medical technicians, hospitals, nursing homes and extended care facilities; but shall not include any nursing service or nursing facility conducted by and for those who rely upon treatment by spiritual means alone in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well-recognized church or religious denomination;

[(4)] (5) “Medical malpractice insurance” [means], insurance coverage against the legal liability of the insured and against loss, damage, or expense incident to a claim arising out of the death or injury of any person as a result of the negligence or malpractice in rendering professional service by any health care provider;

[(5)] (6) “Net direct premiums” [means], gross direct premiums written on casualty insurance in the state of Missouri by companies authorized to write casualty insurance under chapter 379, RSMo 1969, in the state of Missouri, less return premiums thereon and dividends paid or credited to policyholders on such direct business.

383.151. When the department determines after a public hearing that medical malpractice liability insurance is not reasonably available for health care providers in the voluntary market, the director shall establish a method for providing such insurance to such health care providers. The director may:

(1) Establish a competitive bidding process under which insurers may submit rates at which they agree to insure such health care providers; or

(2) Establish any other method reasonably designed to provide insurance to such health care providers.

383.200. 1. As used in sections 383.200 to 383.225, the following terms mean:

(1) “Director”, the same meaning as such term is defined in section 383.100;

(2) “Health care provider”, the same meaning as such term is defined in section 383.100;

(3) “Insurer”, an insurance company licensed in this state to write liability insurance, as described in section 379.010, RSMo;

(4) “Medical malpractice insurance”, the same meaning as such term is defined in section 383.200.

2. The following standards and procedures shall apply to the making and use of rates pertaining to all classes of medical malpractice insurance:

(1) Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. A rate is excessive if it is unreasonably high for the insurance provided. A rate is inadequate if it is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and continued use of it would endanger the solvency of the company. A rate is unfairly discriminatory if it does not reflect equitably differences in reasonably expected losses and expenses;

(2) (a) Every insurer that desires to increase a rate by less than fifteen percent shall file such rate, along with data supporting the rate change as prescribed by the director, no later than thirty days after such rate becomes effective. Filings under this paragraph shall not be subject to approval or disapproval by the director.

(b) Every insurer that desires to increase a rate by fifteen percent or more shall submit a complete rate application to the director. A complete rate application shall include all data supporting the proposed rate and such other information as the director may require. The applicant shall have the burden of proving that the requested rate change is justified and meets the requirements of this act.

(c) Every insurer that has filed a rate increase under paragraph (a) of this subdivision for two consecutive years and in the third year desires to file a rate increase which in the aggregate over the three-year period will equal or exceed a total rate increase of forty percent or more shall be required to submit a complete rate application under paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(d) Every insurer that has not filed or had a rate increase approved for three consecutive years may file a rate increase in the fourth year in an amount not to exceed a twenty-five percent increase without being required to submit a complete rate application under paragraph (b) of this subdivision;

(3) The director of insurance shall promulgate rules setting forth standards that insurers shall adhere to in calculating their rates. Such rules shall:

(a) Establish a range within which an expected rate of return shall be presumed reasonable;

(b) Establish a range within which categories of expenses shall be presumed reasonable;

(c) Establish a range for the number of years of experience an insurer may consider in determining an appropriate loss development factor;

(d) Establish a range for the number of years of experience an insurer may consider in determining an appropriate trend factor;

(e) Establish a range for the number of years of experience an insurer may consider in determining an appropriate increased limits factor;

(f) Establish the proper weights to be given to different years of experience;

(g) Establish the extent to which an insurer may apply its subjective judgment in projecting past cost data into the future;

(h) Establish any other standard deemed reasonable and appropriate by the director;

(4) The director shall require an insurer to submit with any rate change application:

(a) A comparison, in a form prescribed by the director, between the insurer's initial projected incurred losses and its ultimate incurred losses for the eight most recent policy years for which such data is available;

(b) A memorandum explaining the methodology the insurer has used to reflect the total investment income it reasonably expects to earn on all its assets during the period the proposed rate is to be in effect. The director shall disapprove any rate application that does not fully reflect all such income;

(5) The director shall notify the public of any application from an insurer seeking a rate increase of fifteen percent or more, and shall hold a hearing on such application within forty-five days of such notice. The application shall be deemed approved ninety days after such notice unless it is disapproved by the director after the hearing;

(6) If after a hearing the director finds any rate of an insurer to be excessive, the director may order that the insurer discontinue the use of the rate and that the insurer refund the excessive portion of the rate to any policyholder who has paid such rate. The director shall not be required to find that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist to find a rate excessive.

3. For insurers required to file pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section, if there is insufficient experience within the state of Missouri upon which a rate can be based with respect to the classification to which such rate is applicable, the director may approve a rate increase that considers experiences within any other state or states which have a similar cost of claim and frequency of claim experience as this state. If there is insufficient experience within Missouri or any other states which have similar cost of claim and frequency of claim experience as Missouri, nationwide experience may be considered. The insurer in its rate increase filing shall expressly show the rate experience it is using.

4. All information provided to the director under this section shall be available for public inspection.

5. The remedies set forth in this chapter shall be in addition to any other remedies available under statutory or common law.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2004, shall be invalid and void.

383.205. For all medical malpractice insurance policies written for insureds in the state of Missouri, the ratio between the base rate of the highest-rated specialty and the base rate of the lowest-rated specialty shall be no more than a ratio of six-to-one.

383.210. In determining the premium paid by any health care provider, a medical malpractice insurer shall apply a credit or debit based on the provider's loss experience, or shall establish an alternative method giving due consideration to the provider's loss experience. The insurer shall include a schedule of all such credits and debits, or a description of such alternative method in all filings it makes with the director of insurance. No medical malpractice insurer may use any rate or charge any premiums unless it has filed such schedule or alternative method with the director of insurance and the director has approved such schedule or alternative method. A debit shall be based only on those claims that have been paid on behalf of the provider.
